ELABORATE SCENES TO BE PRESENTED BY GREEK DANCERS

Symbolic Pictures of Ancient Time to Have Artistic Settings

Symbolic scenes of the splendid Byzantine age, stirring dances of the classic Hellas, episodes from tragedies of Sophocles, and modern peasant dances compose the program to be presented by Vassos Kanellos of the Royal theatre, Athens, at the Fuller theatre next Monday evening, under the auspices of the Union board.

The background and atmosphere for the presentation will be supplied by elaborate scenery and costumes designed by Charlotte Markham Kanellos, Kanellos' dancing partner. She has attained quite a reputation for her decorative stage design and she is strongly identified with all the modern movements in art.

Tickets may now be obtained by mail order from the Fuller theatre. Open sale will begin Friday. Tickets range from $2 to 50 cents.

ART OF RUSSIANS SHOWS CHARACTER OF UNIQUE NATURE —ROSTOVITZEFF

History Professor Discusses Native Ideas Expressed in Russian Architecture

"To understand the Russians, one must know their art, which is unique in its character. The Russian music and the ballet are well-known in this country, but very few know the Russian architecture, which has brought about monuments as peculiar and original as the masterpieces in other lines."

This was the statement of Prof. Michael I. Rostovtzeff of the History department, in his lecture on "Russian Architecture," in Bascom hall yesterday afternoon. Professor Rostovtzeff is an authority on this subject, having been led to study it from his interest in archaeology.

Connected with the Imperial university and the Higher Woman's course in Petrograd until 1918, Prof. Rostovtzeff was forced to leave Russia during the Bolshevik outbreaks in that year, and went to England. He was at Oxford university for two years, and taught last Spring at the College de France in Paris. He is considered one of the greatest authorities in the world on ancient history.

"A sequence of monuments of great beauty and historical significance show the evolution of Russian architecture from the tenth century until now. It is commonly looked upon as a branch of Byzantine art, but investigations of Russian scholars have proved that this theory is wrong," he explained.

WISCONSIN SENDS BIG DELEGATION TO PRESS MEETING

Wisconsin will have the largest number of representatives from any one school at the second annual convention of the Intercollegiate Press association which is to be held at Milwaukee, December 3, 4, and 5. The Daily Cardinal, the Wisconsin Literary magazine, the Badger, the Wisconsin Engineer, the Octopus, and the Commerce and Country magazines will each send delegates totaling about ten in all.

Beloit, Lawrence, Caro, and Ripon colleges had four or five representatives last year while St. Mary's, St. Clara's, Campion, and Northland had two or three.

A great many Milwaukee-Downer and Marquette students will be present this year to entertain the convention at a banquet and theatre party. Conferences with editors, business managers, and advertising managers of Milwaukee newspapers will also be included in the program.

Any publication of the University of Wisconsin which has neglected to choose its representatives is asked to do so at once and notify either George Green, Lawrence Murphy, or Irwin Maier.

DRAMATIC CLUBS PLAN JOINT MEET

A joint meeting for members of Twelfth Night, Red Domino and Edwin Booth dramatic societies will be held at 7:30 tomorrow night in Lathrop parlors.

A playlet entitled "The Wild Goose" with Geraldine Kaepfel '23, and Ralph Scheinplug '23, in the leading roles will be presented. Mildred Miller '23 will give a reading.

Plans for the joint production which will be presented by the societies January 22 will be discussed. General arrangements for the evening are in charge of Miriam Doan, '22.

GINGHAM SHOP?

No! Not a Place to Buy Dress Goods, But a Waffle Kitchen

First a shoe shining parlor, then for months a deserted shack, and now a place to get real southern waffles and coffee. That is the history of a little neatly painted wooden house on State street that goes by the name "The Gingham Shop."

"Dinah", the cook who reigns in the back kitchen keeps the waffle iron hot every Saturday and Sunday morning.

Blue gingham curtains, shiny, black woodwork and cosy groups of tables and chairs make one realize that the little house has finally found its true vocation in life as a tea-room.

The enterprising proprietor does not stop with waffles but also supplies intellectual food for her patrons. A circulating library of the latest fiction is at the disposal of those who are interested.

FOUR NOVEL ACTS FEATURE FOLLIES SATURDAY NIGHT

Will be Staged During Inter- mission After Every Third Dance

Haresfoot stars in acts and skits combined with music featuring "Red" Hawkins and "Mickey" McConnell, will be the double feature program of the Haresfoot club's annual "Follies" to be given in Lathrop gymnasium and concert room Saturday evening.

The first act of the evening will be put on by "Sparks" Dodge promptly at 9:45 and will be entirely different from the kind that Dodge usually appears in. "Phil" Reed and "Ace" Carver have an act that will be one of the features of the evening. Songs by "Bob" Mailer will be the third feature, with the star performance coming last, when Wells Carberry and "Sunny" Ray will give a dialogue and special dance.

Each act will be about eight minutes long and will come during the intermission of every third dance. Tickets for the "Follies" are on sale at both the University Pharmacy and "Dad" Morgan's. The tickets are $2.00 including war tax, and the sale is limited so as to avoid crowded conditions for dancing.

BADGER TO CONTAIN SENIOR WAR RECORD

All seniors who desire to have their war record included in their summaries can do so by calling at the Badger office any time this week, according to the editor.

Tomorrow is the last day on which senior summaries can be accepted. They should be accompanied by the $1.50 fee. The office will be open from 1:30 until 6. Seniors who have handed in their summaries without money must pay this fee by the end of the week.

CADETS WILL BE SHOWN IN ACTION

Moving pictures were taken last Saturday of the university cadet corps in action. "Movies" of the artillery units were taken at Camp Randall and the automatic rifle, machine gun, pistol, and signal units were put through their manoeuvres at Sunset point. These pictures will be shown at the Strand theatre in the near future. A longer and more complete review of the corps will be made in the spring.

KNOX COLLEGE PLAYS HERE IN OPENING GAME

Injuries Force Meanwell to Postpone Ripon Game Until Dec. 15

1920 - 21 BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Dec. 10—Knox College at Madison.
Dec. 15—Ripon College at Madison.
Dec. 17—La Crosse Normal at La Crosse.
Dec. 18—Milwaukee Normal at Milwaukee.

Feb. 19—Illinois at Urbana.
Feb. 21—Ohio at Columbus.
Feb. 26—Chicago at Madison.
Mar. 5—Minnesota at Madison.
Mar. 8—Ohio at Madison.

The Wisconsin student body will not have an opportunity to see Coach Walter E. Meanwell's varsity basketball five in action until December 10, owing to a revision in the Badger's preliminary schedule. Several injuries to members of the squad have made it necessary to cancel the game with Chandler's River Falls team, and to move the Ripon game forward to December 15. This revision will bring Knox college, of Galesburg, Ill., and member of the Little Five conference here for the opener, on the tenth of December.

A jinx seems to have been in Coach Meanwell's camp since the start of the fall training. McIntosh returned to school ineligible, and will not be able to participate in the regular games until next semester. Several weeks ago Fanning, upon whom Meanwell was depending to take an important place in his offense, has sprained his ankle in scrimmage, and is now hobbling about with a cane. The rangy center will probably be out of the game for some time.

Many Injuries

The squad of ten men, who survived the preliminary weeks of training, were strengthened last week by the addition of several football men. Of these, however, both ex-captain Knapp and Weston were on the injured list as a result of their football season. Knapp reported for practice last week, but was forced to lay off indefinitely because of a bad arm. Weston, reporting for his first time on Monday night, wrenched his knee and left the floor early in the evening.

ATHLETICS

The great season is now over. Sweaters will soon be the fashion among the men folk. The hot stove league will soon be on in full blast. Raz' selections for the All-Hill are as follows:

"Sunny" Ray L. E.
Fanny Ward L. G.
Dorothy Frank (capt.) C.
Birney Miller R. G.
Don Marvin R. T.
Van Pinkerton R. E.
Tyler Barney Q. B.
Doris Dellicker L. H. B.
Herb Stolte R. H. B.
Lowell Ragatz F. B.

This team would be especially strong in the kicking department of the game. It could also hand out some hot lines to the referee. As will be noticed, the center is of a roving disposition, and as for the ends—well, they are all there on ends. And as for speed, judge for yourself.

The tiddeledewinks team, which has been practicing at Hinkson's the past four weeks, begins its season next Thursday evening with a match against the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. Much skill has been shown at practice, and a successful season is hoped for by Capt. Cully Foster. A new ruling by Dean Sellery that all members be Phi Betes will be strictly adhered to. The lineup of the team is:

Larry Bell
Bill Gnagi
Pete Burns
Cully Coster (capt.)

KNOX COLLEGE HERE IN OPENING CONTEST

These set-backs caused Coach Meanwell to make the shifts in his schedule, and like-wise a shake-up in his line-up. Captain Taylor has been played at one of the forward positions throughout the training season, and has developed a sure eye for the basket. Frogner has been shifted to center, to fill the vacancy left by Fanning. In the absence of Knapp, there is a possibility that "Rollie" Williams will be worked into the offense. However, Caesar may be sent to a forward berth if another competent guard can be developed.

Horn Shewing Well

Horn has been playing the back-guard position, and is a strong man on the defense. "Gus" Tebell, end on the 1920 football team and member of the 1923 basketball five, has also reported to Meanwell. In his first scrimmage Tebell made an excellent showing, and will likely see some action in the defensive end of the game.

"Jack" Williams, a junior and also a member of Kent's Frosh team last season, has been playing forward. "Eddie" Frawley, a sophomore, is a fighter on the defense, while "Bill" Bloecher, from last year's varsity squad, is another likely looking guard candidate. Eggebricht may join the squad of toppers this week, but it is not a certainty that he will be used, owing to his late appearance. "Les" Gage a sophomore, has also survived Coach Meanwell's training grind thus far.

CHIPPEWA CLUB HAS ADOPTED NEW POLICY

If Cub Buck, Len Roseth and other distinguished sons of the Chippewa valley were still on the campus they probably would favor the new policy of the Chippewa Valley club in admitting women students to active membership. Women will attend the meeting of the club at the university Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the first time in the history of the organization. All students residing in the Chippewa Valley are members.

HOME ECONOMICS TO HONOR ITS FOUNDER

The School of Home Economics will hold a convocation Friday, December 3, at 4:30, in 18 Home Economics building, in honor of the birthday of Ellen H. Richards, founder of the course. Anyone interested is welcome.

Ellen Richards was a professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and in connection with her work there, she wrote several books on home economics and allied subjects, which have become standard. Since her death in 1911, her birthday has been observed in memory of her services to education.

The program will consist of a talk by Dorothy Jones, president of Omicron Nu, honorary home economics society; personal reminiscences by Miss Abby Marlatt; and stunts and songs by the four classes.

TEN COLLEGE DAILIES

USE PRESS SERVICE

About ten college dailies are now making use of the news service of The Associated Press, according to a statement recently given out by the acting general manager of that organization, F. R. Martin. Among the student publications receiving Associated Press news are The Cornell Daily Sun, The Dartmouth of Dartmouth College, the Indiana Daily Student of the University of Indiana, the Daily Illini of the University of Illinois and the Michigan Daily of the University of Michigan.

That the Y. W. C. A. office in Lathrop hall will be the scene of early Christmas shopping for the next few weeks is the hope of the Young Women's Christian Association which has procured a stock of the latest styles in Christmas cards.

Many types of Christmas greetings will aid the early shopper to make a selection. The office display and sale will probably continue until after the bazaar on Dec. 11.

PRESS CLUB HOLDS INITIATION BANQUET

Need of Solidarity in Journalism, Theme of Bleyer's Talk

The largest number of new members in the history of the Press club were initiated into that organization last night at a cafeteria banquet held in the S. G. A. room at Lathrop hall. Fifty-four were initiated.

With the new members added to the role last evening the club now has the largest membership since the date of organization in 1892. The present roster includes 91 members.

"The development of that spirit of solidarity which the profession of journalism needs," declared Professor William C. Bleyer during the course of a short talk given after the dinner, "is one thing that the Press club can instill in journalism students. The profession needs this spirit of solidarity which marks other professions.

"Unethical practices in the profession should be dealt with in the same manner as they are in bar or medical association. City and country press associations, I believe would do much toward raising news standards."

Interesting sidelights of the club were related by Professor Bleyer who was a charter member of the organization. The club changed the name to "The Scoops" and again to the "Cub's Club" during its 28 years of existence. The strains of a musical comedy would occasionally break through into the meetings of the club during the first year when all sessions were held in a room at the Fuller Opera house. Zona Gale served as president of the organization one year. Professor Bleyer also mentioned.

Plans for the Second Annual Picnic will be started soon by a special committee. The date for the event will be early next year.

FEW VIOLATIONS OF STATE GAME LAWS

W. E. Barber Says One Buck Order is Being Observed

"There have been very few violations of the one buck law order this season and I believe the one buck law has been of great good."

This is the statement of W. E. Barber, chairman of the state conservation commission, who returned today from northern Wisconsin where he has spent over a week gathering evidence on the operation of the one buck order.

"There have been very few violations," declared Mr. Barber. "In a few places hunters have shot a doe or a fawn and in many such instances the animal has been turned over to the conservation warden. But there has been a general observance of the order. The fact of the case is that there are very few deer in northern Wisconsin and if the deer are to be protected the coming session of the legislature must order a closed season for at least two years. Last year 25,000 deer were killed in northern Wisconsin. The number killed this year will not exceed 2,500. The simple fact is that the deer has been almost exterminated in northern Wisconsin.

"We have had about 15 arrests for violation of the law but most of these were for shooting deer before the season opened."

SPANISH PROGRAM GIVEN AT MEETING

The members of Spanish club entertained all interested in the work at a meeting in Lathrop hall last night. A piano solo by George Baum was followed by the rendering of the Spanish play written by Ruth Henry "El Joven Medico Infelizmente" in which Calvert Dedrick, Robert D. Lyons and Matilda Jewell took part. A talk on the Philippines under the rule of Spain was given in Spanish by Signor Ascano Monpellona. Prof. A. C. Lyon also spoke to the club.

The last meeting of the Spanish club before the Christmas holidays will be held in Lathrop parlors on January 16.

SHORT COURSE MEN GUESTS OF SWIFT

Leave Today to Attend International Live Stock Show

Short course second year men of the Animal Husbandry class will take the morning train to Chicago to visit the International Live Stock show. During their stay in Chicago the men will be the guests of Swift & company, packers.

The trip is to include inspections of the packing plants and other points of interest on the South Side. About 30 men of the Poultry club will also take the trip in order to visit the Annual Poultry show that is being held in conjunction with the international exhibit.

Special coaches will be placed on the regular train for the accommodation of the short course men. Mr. E. J. Cooper, of the short course staff, and Professor Scott and Mr. Fargo of the Animal Husbandry department, will accompany the class.

PROFESSOR ELY MAY ADDRESS 'Y' MEETING

Professor R. T. Ely, head of the Economics department, has agreed to speak at one of the first Fellowship meeting of the university Y. M. C. A. after the holidays, upon the subject of "The Influence of Jesus on Economic Thought," according to the committee in charge of the programs.

"Dad" Wolf, secretary of the "Y," will give a talk at the last meeting before the holidays, next Thursday night at 7 o'clock. He will either speak on "Will Christianity Ever be Replaced by Another Religion," or "The Finality of Jesus in Religion." His talk will cover the probability of the further development of religious thought, and the attainment of Christian thought as it is expressed in the scriptures. The religion discussion groups have been dealing with similar questions since the recent talk of Dr. Charles Gilkey, when questions of fundamental Christian conceptions were explained.

BASKETBALL AND THE ARMORY FLOOR

NOW that the football season has ended Wisconsin is turning her attention to basketball. The men who are to defend the cardinal colors in this activity are practicing on the floor of the armory. Sometimes the floor works and sometimes it doesn't work. Particularly is the latter true just after a dance has been given on the floor. The surface becomes slick and the players are compelled to give more attention to staying on their feet than to keeping their eyes on the ball and their minds on the game.

We cannot afford to have a large number of men laid out of basketball. Coach Meanwell is making a game scrap for a real team, but he cannot compete with a slick floor.

Until the basketball season is over no dance ought to be held at the armory.

Give the team a chance.

THE DECISION FOR DECENCY

THROUGH the energetic efforts of the leading student organization the movement to make dancing decent is now well under way. In one form or another the matter has been put up to every man and woman in the university.

All that remains now is to win over the sympathetic support of the rank and file. The leaders have shown the way. They have acted in a spirit of earnestness, and after all earnestness is the keynote of the whole movement. If the appeals sent out are regarded as subjects for jests and merry making the entire proposition will fall flat.

The rigid measures adopted in many universities already should be a warning to Wisconsin. We have an opportunity now to act quietly and accomplish the desired end without a great fuss and furor.

What we have to do is to accept gracefully the proposal that cruel and unusual forms of jazz music be eliminated and to urge chaperones to take their offices more seriously. Much of the dance music for the past three or four years has been less than an abomination. It is not surprising that the shimmy and the toddle have developed. As for the chaperones, they are usually timid. They cling to the theory that he chaperones best who chaperones least. They should be encouraged to speak up when the spirit moves them. The results would be surprising.

There is no reason why every student should not be enlisted to save dancing from the disrepute into which it is falling.

ENROLLMENT OF 7,004 STUDENTS SETS NEW RECORD

Exactly 7,004 students are enrolled in the University of Wisconsin this semester, according to the final figures just tabulated for the forthcoming student directory. Earlier figures are but slightly reduced by withdrawals. This total exceeds the record figure of 6,872 included in the directory figures of the first semester last year.

Of the total, 4,594 are men and 2,410 are women, both totals larger than last year.

By classes, there are 2,240 freshmen, 1,710 sophomores, 1,299 juniors, 1,063 seniors, 503 graduate students, and 158 special students—all classes, except the junior, are larger than last year.

The College of Letters and Science has 4,667 students, as compared with 4,622 last year. Within it are included the following special courses: Normal school graduates, 53; Course in Commerce, 1,312; Course in Pharmacy, 88; Course in Chemistry, 103; Course in Journalism, 219. The School of Music has 124 regular students.

The College of Engineering has 1,166 students, as compared with 1,034 last year. Its courses include: Civil engineering, 237; mining, 81; mechanical, 304; electrical, 358; chemical, 170.

The College of Agriculture has 873 students, as compared with 874 last year. It includes: Four-year course, 406; two-year course, 100; home economic course, 252.

The Law school has 162, as compared with 166 last year. The Medical school has 155, as compared with 116 last year. The Wisconsin Library school has 29, as compared with 36 last year.

GRADUATE STUDENTS GIVE DANCE FRIDAY

The third dance of the year for graduate students will take place Friday evening, December 3, in the Lathrop concert room. This is to be the last dance of its kind before the Christmas recess. The committee urges that all of the 547 graduate students be present. The admission is 35 cents.

The entertainment begins at 8:15 with a social hour. The committee has arranged some special stunts for this period. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

"These graduate dances, which take place once a month, are really international affairs," said Dorothy Hart, secretary to Dean Goodnight and a graduate. "At the last dance there was a Norwegian present who could speak every language but English. Nearly all parts of the world have been represented there. French people, Germans, Spaniards, English students, Japs, South Americans, and Indians all attended. Even South Africa was represented by a Boer."

DEUTSCHER VEREIN TO GIVE PROGRAM

"The next meeting of the German Club (Deutscher Verein) will be held in Lathrop hall on Wednesday, December 1st at 7:30 p. m. The program will consist of a reading of Anzengruber's Gewissenswurm. Cast of characters: Grillhofer, a wealthy farmer, A. R. Hohlfeld; Dusterer, his brother-in-law, E. C. Roedder; Horlacherlies, a young girl, Frieda Meyer; Wastl, servant of Grillhofer, Mrs. B. Q. Morgan; Leonhard, a carter, F. Bruns; Poltnerweib, a farmer's wife, Margaret Mueller."

FIVE VARSITY MEN ARE ELIGIBLE FOR WRESTLING SQUAD

Heavy Schedule Includes Four Conference Meets—Hitchcock New Coach

With five members of last year's wrestling squad eligible for further conference competition and two of the 1920 freshman squad rapidly rounding into condition, prospects are good for the Wisconsin wrestling team.

The men from the 1920 varsity squad who have returned to school are L. Culver '21, 135-lbs.; Ivan Peterman '22, 145-lbs.; S. F. Prideaux '22, 125 lbs.; A. H. Schneiders, '22, 135-lbs.; Ora McMurray '21, 175 lbs. Culver has won his wrestling "W", and Peterman, Prideaux, and Schneiders have won the "aWa" W. H. Klass '23, 135 lbs. and H. H. Holmes '23, 155 lbs. are the two members of the 1920 freshman squad who are in line for places on the squad.

Tryouts Friday

Tryouts for more members of the varsity squad will be held Friday afternoon and evening. All freshmen who have had previous athletic experience will report at the wrestling room this afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 or in the evening from 8 to 9:30. Because of the limited room in which to work, only twenty four freshmen will be accepted to try out for the first year mat team.

Coach G. D. Hitchcock, instructor in the mining engineering laboratory, will have charge of the varsity and freshman wrestling squads this year, enabling Joe Steinauer to devote all of his time to the development of a strong swimming team. Hitchcock has had wrestling experience, having coached the high school teams at West Waterloo, Iowa, and the business mens athletic club in that city. Hitchcock has been in the ring with Farmer Burns and Earl Caddock, present worlds heavyweight champion. He has also trained several big wrestlers, including Earl Miller who defeated Matty Matsuda.

"Although we are handicapped for room in the present wrestling quarters, we are hopeful of a winning team this year," declared the new coach Tuesday afternoon. "The wrestlers have shown much enthusiasm, and if we are successful in obtaining the upper story of the boat house for new training quarters, I believe that a winning team will represent Wisconsin on the mat."

Schedule Heavy

Plans are already under way for a heavy schedule for the 1921 squad and the men will go into intensive training at once. Wisconsin conference season will start in February, and plans have been made to hold a meet every two weeks until the end of the season.

"Wisconsin will face a heavy schedule in wrestling," Coach Hitchcock said, "and we hope to card at least four matches. We expect to meet Minnesota at Minneapolis, and Chicago at Chicago, and to bring Illinois and Northwestern to Madison for bouts. Of these schools, Illinois, with Paul Prehn, runner-up for the national middle-weight championship as coach, is reckoned the most formidable."

Wrestling authorities have received an offer from Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, for a light weight wrestling match. If Coach Hitchcock can develop a light weight team of professional caliber, he expects to accept the challenge of the Fort Atkinson club.

MONTGOMERY-WARD NEED NO STUDENTS

Montgomery Ward & Co. of Chicago will not employ Wisconsin students during the holidays this year as they did last year, according to "Dad" Wolf, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. This information was received by Mr. Wolf in answer to an inquiry sent to the superintendent of the firm.

James Corey.

James Corey of Santa Barbara, Cal., who recently celebrated his eightieth birthday by taking a trip in an airplane, and then complained that the pace of ninety-eight miles an hour set by the aviator was not fast enough, declares there is just one more experience he wants and he intends to have that within the next few months. And that experience is to go down in a submarine.

BUILD UP CHEMICAL WARFARE, SAYS FRIES

Would Have U. S. Surpass All Nations in Use of Chemicals

WASHINGTON—Declaring that the world war demonstrated that an "enemy bent on aggression cannot be trusted to live up to any set rules for war," Brig. Gen. Amos A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare service of the army, in his annual report today, asserts that the development of this branch of the U. S. Army to a point "where it is impossible for any nation to go further," will do much toward deterring other nations from forcing hostilities against the United States.

This country is in a position to manufacture and deliver on the field of battle more chemicals than any other nation or group of nations, says Gen. Fries, adding that "the United States has wisely decided to continue the chemical warfare service with sufficient powers and funds to develop its possibilities."

ture, it is true, that of the eleventh century, was really an imitation of the Byzantine art. This was first introduced by Greek architects who were brought into the country by Russian princes.

"But soon the native Russian ideas began to supersede foreign influences. During the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, entirely new forms arose, which were the natural product of the Russian genius. This period is the most interesting and beautiful in the history of Russian architecture.

"A return to the old motives with the additions of new formations marked the next epoch. The vivid sense of colors which is peculiar to Russian art appeared noticeably at this time. Later in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the architects began to look to other countries, notably Germany and Poland for ideas which they could adapt to their need.

Many interesting and unusual pictures of churches and houses were thrown on the screen to illustrate the evolution of the different types of architecture. The growth in ornamentation, the different treatments of the roof, and of the cupolas and belfrys, were the chief points which attracted one's notice. "During one period all the churches were built entirely of wood. Many interesting variations were practiced in this medium. The wonderful tent roof made entirely of wood, appeared in many combinations with cupolas and towers," Professor Rostovtzeff declared at one time.

"The artistic and religious ideas of Russian church builders were essentially the same as those of French architects, although they took different shapes," he said, in connection with the plans of the churches.

Professor Rostovtzeff will continue his lecture today at 4:30 in 165 Bascom hall.

Florence Stolte has charge of the decorations for the second floor, where there will be dancing. Dramatic sketches will be presented by Twelfth Night and Red Domino in the concert room.

CANDY PRICES WILL DROP, SAY JOBBERS

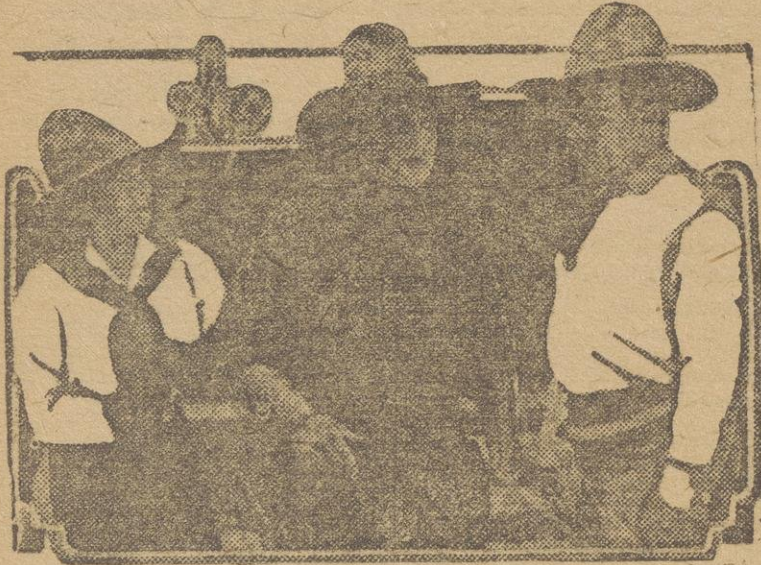

Candy prices are on the decline, and the past few weeks have seen a steady fall in the price of most sweets, according to the leading candy manufacturers of Madison, who are following the steps taken by Chicago and Milwaukee wholesalers.

"We have already made a reduction of from ten to twenty-five per cent," declared F. S. Roger of the Palace of Sweets, "in accordance with the decline in the price of sugar, but at the same time the cost of paper wrappers, tin foil, and wages are higher than ever."

The Teckmeyer candy company has also declared a decrease in the prices of their goods. "Nuts and various other articles are still too high to permit any decided cut," stated an official of that concern. He claimed that they have stopped making stick and sugar candy because the demand now was for nugget bars, and chocolate creams, the prices of which have not been reduced very much.

"BAZAAR ABOVE PAR" CHOSEN Y. W. SLOGAN

A chocolate cake won by four words—don't you wish you knew them?

Here they are, then: "A Bazaar Above Par". This was judged the best slogan submitted for the Y. W. C. A. bazaar to be held Saturday, Dec. 11. But those words have done their work, and no more cakes are forthcoming. The winners of the prize are three: Elizabeth Torkelson '23, Mae Smith '21, and Cleo Parsley '23.

A large number of slogans were turned in. The selection was made by Dean F. Louise Nardin, Katherine Rosenberry, '23, in charge of the contest, Miss Mary Anderson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and Mildred Gerlach, '22, publicity chairman for the bazaar. The slogan will appear on all bazaar posters.

AT THE ORPHEUM

Dainty and clever Miss "Bobby" Walton and Moss and Fryo, are sharing headline positions on the present Orpheum bill of vaudeville. Miss Walton, appearing in a cycle of songs specially arranged by Nan Halperin, is making one of the biggest hits with local audiences of a single turn, this season, and Moss and Frye with the clever patter and tuneful songs are the laughing hit of each performance. Count Peronne and Trix Oliver, high class singers are enjoyed by all, while the playlet "Oh You Women", featuring Martha Hamilton and company contains many bright lines. Time and Title, in a comedy bicycle number and the Arco brothers, athletes supreme offer unusual stunts. Kinogram and Topic of the Day pictures complete the program.

Starting with two performances tomorrow night, the new Vaudeville bill for the Orpheum will present W. Horlick and the Sarampa Sisters in descriptive and variety dances; Healy and Cross, showing the smartest styles in songs; Mrs. Wellington's Surprise a comedy playlet; The Eggspert, Wallace Galvin, comedian and conjurer; Rinehart and Duff, two Dixie Misses; Teschow's Cats and Kinogram pictures.

THE GRAND

Tonight at the Grand, Katherine MacDonald, the famous American beauty, will take us for a peep behind the scenes, and show us the excitement attending a big "first night", for the last times. The screen version of Rita Weiman's Saturday Evening Post story "Curtain" has caught much that was unusual in the theme, and in this picture, Miss MacDonald has found a screen vehicle that enables her to register something besides the fact that she is one of the loveliest of film beauties. The story itself always moves with a finger on one's pulse.

AT THE STRAND

"The Sea Wolf", Jack London's rugged story of adventure, has been made into a stirring photoplay and will be shown at the Strand Theatre for four days commencing today.

Spectacular scenes, such as the ramming of a ferryboat by a whaling schooner in a fog in San Francisco Bay, the beaching of the schooner in a gale, and the violent battles between "Wolf" and his crew stand out with extreme vividness.

On the other hand, a delightful love story is blended into this atmosphere of violence. The character of "Wolf" Larsen, the brutal sea captain, who rules with an iron hand, but who is a deep student of philosophy and reader of poetry, is delineated on the screen with even greater force than it was on the printed page. The story, in brief, concerns a rich idler and a pretty girl who were picked up by "Wolf" after a disaster at sea and their strange adventures while under his domination.

Noah Beery gives an excellent performance as "Wolf." Tom Forman and Mabel Julienne Scott do good work also, and Raymond Hatton draws laughter as the sad-eyed "sea cook." The picture is a Paramount Aircraft and a George Melford Production.

In addition there will be shown the latest News Weekly and a comedy cartoon.

AT THE FULLER

G. Raymond Nye is the stalwart villain who tries to get the girl and her gold in "Drag Harlan", William Farnum's latest William Fox photodrama of the West, which is booked for the Fuller Theatre today.

Nye confesses a queer ambition—to play a Chinese mandarin, just to show how well he could make up for the part. Being a good actor is something, but being a good make-up man is something else again; and Nye believes he can wield the grease paint with anybody in the business.

Nye has appeared in stock, in the circus and finally entered pictures as the most likely outlet for his talents.

"Drag Harlan" is a picturization of Charles Alden Seltzer's story of that name.

The results of the fall archery tournament show Florence Mahorney, a junior, champion for this year. The tournament, was delayed for a few days because of bad weather.

Each girl shot 36 arrows. Florence Mahorney landed 22 arrows in the target and scored 100 points. The young women who placed second were Gretchen Kronke '24, who hit with 24 arrows and scored 49; and Fern Foxon '22, who landed 12 arrows and scored 48.

In the perpetual class tournament in which the six highest arrows were counted Florence Mahorney scored 82 points.
