CORONER HOLDS MYSTERY DEATH IS ACCIDENTAL

Lilly Inquest is Dropped Because of Abundant Evidence

George Butler Lilly, Madison insurance salesman and former student at the university, who was found dead on the Northwestern tracks at Stockton, Minn., early Saturday morning, met his death by accident, according to a decision reached by the coroner and sheriff of Winona. No inquest was called because of the abundance of evidence proving that the victim died under the wheels of a train.

An atmosphere of mystery no longer surrounds the accounts of Lilly's death. Possibilities of robbery and murder have been put aside by the logical explanation of the accident offered by the six men who started with Lilly on the fatal trip to Minneapolis for the Wisconsin-Minnesota game.

Lilly's comrades, after they returned from Minneapolis where they had first heard of the tragedy, told their complete version of the story.

Leaving Madison at noon Friday, the party of seven men, all of whom were students except Lilly, met with no trouble until they reached Baraboo, where they were forced to stop a short time for repairs. They reached La Crosse about eight in the evening, crossed over into Minnesota and continued on to Utica, where a serious breakdown compelled them to abandon attempts to reach Minneapolis that night.

At the place where their car was crippled the highway ran parallel to the Northwestern tracks. Two freights, facing opposite directions, stood ready to pull out. It was agreed that Arthur Johnston would ride one of the trains to Rochester, and return with help.

Johnson missed the first freight, and it is believed that Lilly, thinking suddenly of his own car at his home in La Crescent, not far from Utica, flipped the second train, intending to get his car and return to the waiting six.

Cause is Unknown

It will never be known how or why Lilly fell from the train, and was crushed under the wheels near Stockton, the station next to Utica. The rest of the party, after waiting six hours for him to return, decided that he had caught a train for Minneapolis. Consequently they made the remainder of their journey by train, intending to meet Lilly at the game.

George Lilly was a member of Zeta Psi fraternity. His fraternity brothers and closest friends left last night for La Crescent to attend the funeral.

Four Are Elected to Y. W. C. A. Commission

CARNIVAL ACTS TO OPEN HOMECOMING

The first event of Wisconsin's homecoming will be held at 8:30 o'clock Friday evening in the gymnasium, when a vaudeville carnival of five snappy acts will be given. Each act will be made up of the most talented performers in the university and tuneful music by dialogue is promised.

Chief among the funmakers is the Haresfoot club, which will give a singing and dancing act. Their program will be full of spirit and fun, and the famous chorus, in which "all our girls are men and everyone a lady" will be there to give several new songs and dances.

The nature of the acts is to be kept secret until the performance so as to make the show more or less of a surprise.

"MASQUERADER" TO GIVE ACCOUNT OF EXPERIENCES

Alleman Will Tell Story of Adventures at Press Club Meeting

"The Masquerader" of the State Journal, H. Eugene Alleman, will reveal the intimate details of his adventures during the past week, when he speaks before an open meeting of the Press club tonight at 5:30 o'clock.

The place of meeting has been changed from the S. G. A. rooms to Lathrop parlors. Officers of the club have requested that those wishing to hear "The Masquerader's" talk lunch in one of the dining rooms and gather in the parlors at 6 o'clock when the program will begin.

Alleman was the principal of one of the cleverest stunts ever carried through by a local newspaper. Photographs and descriptions of Alleman, in the guise of "The Masquerader," were published in the State Journal daily, together with an account of his adventures during the preceding day.

The program will be open to any who wish to attend. Following "The Masquerader's" talk, members of the Press club will remain for a brief business session to consider applications for membership.

BELGIAN PROF SPEAKS TODAY

Prof. Henri Pierenne to Talk on "Mohammed and Charlemagne"

"Mohammed and Charlemagne" will be the subject of an address by Professor Henri Pierenne of the University of Ghent, Belgium, who will speak in Bascom hall at 4:30 o'clock today.

Professor Pierenne is president of the International Congress of Historians, which will meet at Brussels, Belgium in April of next year. Professors Carl Russell Fish and M. I. Rostovtzeff are making plans to represent the university at the conference.

All the large universities and colleges will be visited by the professor, who is travelling through America on an extensive tour with his wife. Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Chicago and California are among the universities included in the professor's visit.

Tuesday evening 20 covers will be laid at a stag dinner party at the Madison club. Professors Carl Russell Fish, M. I. Rostovtzeff, and F. L. Paxson will be hosts. A small dinner at the Madison Club honoring Mrs. Pierenne will be given at the same time by Mrs. M. I. Rostovtzeff.

Following both functions, there will be a reception honoring Professor and Mrs. Pierenne at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Paxson, Van Hise avenue. All the faculty members of the history department, their wives and graduate students of the history department will be guests.

Wednesday evening the professor and his wife will be entertained at a small formal dinner at the Madison club.

1,000 Cheering Students Greet Victorious Team

More than 1,000 students gave proof of the return of the old Wisconsin spirit last Sunday morning when they gathered at the railroad station to welcome the team when it arrived home from Minnesota.

Gus Tuckerman, varsity yell leader, was unable to be present as he was in charge of the band which did not arrive until an hour later on the C. M. & St. P. but several yells were led by an assistant cheer leader and Capt. Rolie Williams was carried from the train on the shoulders of several enthusiastic rooters.

7,000 PROGRAMS OF HOMECOMING ON SALE FRIDAY

Athletic Review Edition to Be Largest in History

When the Homecoming Athletic Review, the official Homecoming program, rolls off the press Friday morning, Wisconsin will have by far the largest and most pretentious magazine ever compiled for a Homecoming celebration.

Seven thousand copies of the program will be sold beginning Friday noon, according to Porter F. Butts '24, editor. They will be placed on sale at Homecoming information booths, drug stores, at the mass-meeting and carnival Friday night and at the game Saturday afternoon.

The regular issue of the Athletic Review is combined with the Homecoming program making the book one of the largest and most attractive of its kind ever published by an American college.

To Have 56 Pages

Fifty-six pages, an increase of eight over other programs, are replete with pictures and feature material contrived to interest all classes of Wisconsinites attending the Homecoming.

Information concerning every Homecoming event, the game lineup and train schedules are included in the book and will be printed in it alone.

Featured in the book are three pages of running fire by "Chuck" of sport humor fame. Each man on the eleven comes in for his share of the typical Chuck elaboration and glorification.

Wisconsin Leads Illinois

Statistics showing that Wisconsin and Illinois again lead the Big Ten for 1921-22 in total athletic average are published in the book. Brief summaries of every Wisconsin-Illinois football game show that Wisconsin has won six contests against Illinois five. The coaches and captains of both teams are compared and statistical data on both squads is given.

For the first time every Wisconsin football score is printed in tabular form. From the scores Laurence Sogard '23, associate editor, has devised a graph which shows the rise and fall of Wisconsin football success from the first days of '91 to 1922.

Shows Stadium Drawings

The stadium comes in for its share in the program in an illustrated story showing its development from its early days as a fair grounds to its present aspect as a Big Ten athletic field.

Other feature material includes an article by Dean Scott H. Goodnight on "What Does Homecoming Mean?" an illustrated resume of all Homecomings since the first in 1911, a retrospective writeup of "Football Old Timers and Old Times," and a report of the present Memorial Union campaign.

Illustrated forecasts of every major and minor sport at Wisconsin, giving to the graduate a swift perspective of athletics here at present complete the program.

CHILDS OPENS SPEECH SERIES

Y. M. C. A. Worker to Give First Memorial Union Talk Tonight

Jack Childs, Wisconsin's representative in China, will speak at three professor's homes this week and on Friday evening will address the Homecoming massmeeting in the gymnasium. Tuesday evening he will be at the home of Dean F. E. Turneure, Wednesday at that of Prof. M. S. Slaughter, and the Thursday evening engagement will be announced later.

Various groups of faculty members will attend the meetings as will also workers in the Wisconsin in China movement. Childs is an old Wisconsin graduate and as such will contribute to the spirit of mass meeting speakers.

In China, Childs' work had to do principally with the furthering of the work begun by former oriental students in this country, according to Dean Turneure.

Four hundred college students at Peking are served by Childs as a Y. M. C. A. secretary. He also arranges programs and speakers for the Chinese, promotes athletics, conducts social service programs, and acts as advisor to hundreds of Chinese students.

"The work of Childs in China is one of the outstanding factors in the returned students progress in China and is a lasting memorial to Wisconsin's universality," Thomas A. Tredwell '24, who is at the head of the movement, said yesterday.

Childs will arrive at 5:30 o'clock this evening and will remain in Madison for the remainder of the week. He is in this country on a furlough.

Country Mag to Be Circulated Today

The November issue of the Country Magazine will make its appearance on the campus today.

A main feature of this month's issue is an article by Prof. G. C. Humphrey describing his experiences at the Argentine Live stock exhibition at which he officiated as judge.

Miss Abby Marlatt, director of the Course in Home Economics, who is travelling in Europe, has contributed news of interest to all Home Economic students.

RAILROADS WILL GIVE RATES TO PRESS MEETING

U. S. Senators Lenroot or La Follette to Speak

Special railroad rates for the 750 members of the Central Interscholastic Press association who will convene in Madison on December 1 and 2 have been promised by officials of the Northwestern and Journal. B. M. Brayton, of Jerome O. Bjerke '24, general chairman of the convention.

Plans to secure special rates from many of the railroads of the middle west are being made, according to Bjerke. Following the receipt of letters from high school editors in all parts of the country, officials of the press association started attempts to gain reductions on fares of roads in all sections of the country. A letter from the editor of the Las Vegas, New Mexico, paper and another from Seattle, Wash., high school paper, stating that representatives would be sent to the convention, were received yesterday.

Expect 1,000 Delegates

"I am quite certain that the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul road can make a reduction in its rates to bring the editors here," A. M. Batty, Madison superintendent of the road stated yesterday after he had been told of the numbers which have signified their intention of attending the meet.

"In all probability you will have 1,000 delegates registered at the convention, judging by the present rate of registration. We could easily afford to make rates for them," Batty said.

Newspaper Men Speak

Scores of letters from the New England states have already reached association headquarters, according to Bjerke. Scores more from schools scattered from coast to coast are expected following the announcement of the program.

Speeches by Prof. S. E. Bastin, of the Medill School of Journalism, John R. Wolf, of the Milwaukee Journal, B. M. Brayton, of the Wisconsin State Journal, and other prominent men in public life are being obtained for the convention, according to Harold E. McClelland '23, director of the association. United States Senator I. L. Lenroot, and Senator Robert M. La Follette, and Governor J. J. Blaine also will be asked to talk.

Program Opens Dec. 1

The program as arranged by the convention officials opens early on Friday morning, December 1, with a sight seeing tour of Madison, the state capital, the university and forest product laboratory. "Go and Get It," a movie of newspaper life, has been secured for simultaneous showing at the Strand theatre.

HUGH WALPOLE TO MAKE ADDRESS HERE

Hugh Seymour Walpole, English novelist, will speak here some time in December under the auspices of the Theta Sigma Phi, honorary women's journalism sorority.

Mr. Walpole will speak on "The English Novel of the Twentieth Century." He is making a tour of lectures under the auspices of the Lee Keedick Booking agency. He attended King's School, Canterbury, and is a graduate of Emmanuel College, Cambridge. During the war, he served with the Russian Red Cross. His latest novels published are "The Captives" and "Thirteen Travelers."

"Mr. Walpole is a very distinguished speaker and one the students of the university should support loyally. We should feel the honor of securing a speaker and authority of his reputation. When tickets are placed on sale, we trust the proper backing will be secured," Marjorie Ruff '23, president of Theta Sigma Phi, said yesterday.

PLAN SORORITY RUSHING RULES

Pan-Hellenic Committee Considering Changes in System

"New rules for sorority rushing are being investigated by a committee," Mildred Rieck '24, a member of the local Pan-hellenic society and chairman of the new rushing rules committee, said yesterday.

"Dissatisfaction with the present rushing system is rather general, and we are hoping to establish a better one. The rushing season for the past few years has been unnecessarily difficult both for the sororities and the rushees. Questionnaires have been sent to the various chapters asking suggestions for improvements," Miss Rieck explained.

Three new methods stand out as the most likely to be adopted. The first would be to have second semester pledging, giving the sororities and the rushees more time to become acquainted with each other before a decision is made. This has been worked out in other schools.

The second system is to have sorority rushing done the week before school opens as fraternities now rush. This would eliminate the double strain of starting school work and rushing at the same time which is a leading objection to the plan in vogue now. Sorority rushing would not be given an undue prominence in life if the rushees were asked to come to Madison the week before school opened to attend the rushing functions. Rushing would be closed before classes started and class work would not be hindered.

The third suggestion is an improvement of the present system. Invitations would be sent to the rushees to attend the first group of parties, as invitations to the teas were sent this year. After these first functions, which would consist of two teas and several informal affairs, the sororities would issue invitations for the second group to the girls whom they wished to rush further.

This system would enable the sororities to see more of the rushees before second invitations were sent and would allow for more informal parties to take the place of the present formal functions which are given during the rushing season.

Bright Spots Numerous In Current Orph Bill

Henri Margo's "Tints and Tones" is one of the bright spots on the current Orpheum bill. Music, song and dance in a glorious setting are introduced by this company of singers and dancers. Animal lovers will find enjoyment in the act offered by Carlton Emmy and his Mad Wags. The latter are 18 Scotch Terriers, who execute their performance with many a wag of the tail and bark of enthusiasm. A moral lesson with a tear and a laugh in every line is "Broken Promises," a one act playlet by Arthur DeVoy and his players. Scoring by his personality and good nature, Hughie Clark, known as "the commander and chief of the Army of Stanley, Doyle and Reno, are companions. Three singing humorists, tributing their share of amusement. An unusual amount of daring and agility is shown by the Three Dan-aise Sisters. Election returns will be announced from the stage to-night.

A. of C. Wants Henry Ford As Speaker Here

Attempts to procure Henry Ford as a speaker at a banquet and open forum contemplated by the Association of Commerce for the near future have failed thus far, Don Mowry, secretary of the association said today. Another attempt will be made to bring Mr. Ford at a later date.

Snake Acts as Detour Sign on State Street

A huge black snake, five feet long and four inches around, took possession of the center of the sidewalk before the Presbyterian student parish house on Sunday evening and held sway in regal coils.

Young ladies walked by mincingly, giving the despised creeper wide berth; young men hesitated long before they dared antagonize the reptile with a stick, well chosen as to length; little boys stood off wide eyed; and big dogs sniffed slink around the world again. And growing very brave they lifted from a discreet distance.

The crowd about grew large, and a dapper young hero tantalized the attraction with his cane. But the creeper would not be urged. He remained peacefully wound up like a garden hose on a green sward.

Suddenly the crowd realized that the snake had forsaken this life for its particular happy hunting ground and that it would never slink around the world again. And then growing brave, they lifted him on a stick and carried him triumphantly down the street.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

HARD SCHEDULE FACES BADGERS IN FINAL WEEKS

Richards' Men Must Meet Michigan and Chicago After Suckers

Second down and three to go. That's the record of the Wisconsin football team in the early part of the 1922 season.

Credited with victories over Indiana and Minnesota, the Badgers yesterday worked out at Camp Randall in preparation for their Homecoming battle with Illinois. After Illinois, Michigan and Chicago complete the Wisconsin schedule, the hardest that any Big Ten Conference team planned.

Coach John Richards will drive his men harder than ever this year in an attempt to dispose of the "fighting Illini" and keep in the van of the Big Ten race. It will be a grudge battle with both elevens exerting every effort to clean up on the other. Wisconsin teams coached by Richards have defeated Illinois outfits coached by Zuppke for three consecutive years. Coach Richards wants to make it four. "Bob" Zuppke wants to avenge past defeats and redeem an otherwise unsuccessful season by beating the Badgers.

Professionalism Troublesome
The professionalism squabble also will have an influence on the team play. When Illinois protested Jab Murry it started a rumpus that may wreck athletic relations between itself and Wisconsin. Wisconsin retaliated by protesting five Illini, and if these men are forbidden to play, the Suckers will be badly wrecked.

Although the Homecoming game is an important one, it is not expected to be as crucial as the contest with Michigan one week later. Illinois has been defeated by Butler, Michigan, and Iowa. It barely eked out a 6-3 victory over Northwestern in a dropkicking duel last Saturday. The result of this game demonstrated that the Indian offense is weak, but that it can score through the air. Couthie, reserve quarterback, kicked two dropkicks, one from the 50-yard line.

Northwestern players questioned the success of one of the kicks, claiming that the ball had passed outside the goal posts.

It was a high drop and the ball passed near enough to the post so that Purple gridders thought it had failed. Their protests were of no avail and the three points were enough to give Illinois a victory.

Gophers Out of It

By defeating Minnesota, 14 to 0, on Saturday, the Wisconsin team definitely put Coach Spaulding's proteges out of the running for title honors. Minnesota previously had won two games and tied one.

Some of the high lights in the Minnesota game follow:

Wisconsin tried 17 forward passes and completed eight of them. This record is exceptional with a dry ball, and on a dry field, but considering the conditions which prevailed Saturday, it is considered marvelous. Shorty Barr's passing and the receiving by Tebell and Irish were remarkable.

Minnesota essayed four forward throws. Two were incomplete and two were intercepted.

Earl Martineau stopped Rollie Williams' 55-yard run down the gridiron when he leaped into the three-man interference and slowed up the Badger captain long enough to permit Gopher tacklers to get him from behind.

Hero Falls

Before the game Martineau was touted as an All-American possibility. After the game, these Minnesota hopes faded. Four consecutive times, Martineau was thrown for a total loss of 36 yards. Although he made most of the Gopher gains and was the mainstay of the backfield, he cannot compare with Rollie Williams.

Capt. Ollis Aas, the Minnesota center, was expected to batter the Wisconsin center line. Both Nichols and Pearse manhandled him and in the second half, Pearse pushed him all over the mud lot.

Abrahamson, Gopher linesman, thought the game lasted too long.

Athletic Board Buys Grid Graph For Gym

The grid graph which was used for the first time last Saturday to report the Minnesota game play by play to students assembled in the armory here has been purchased by the Athletic board at a cost of $562.50 from the firm of Powell and Howenstein, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Almost every other school in the conference has a similar graph," Frank Nickerson, assistant to the chairman of the Physical Education department, said yesterday.

About 1,800 people were at the meeting in the gym Saturday afternoon, all of whom shouted in approval when asked by George Walstead '25, whether they liked the grid graph and wanted it used in the future.

GYM TEAM TO PLAN BIG YEAR

Eleven Men Working to Fill Vacancies Left By Grads

Eleven men are working out three times a week in the gymnasium in preparation for a big year on the gym team. The men are working under a handicap in that Coach Schlatter is absent and no other man has as yet been procured. There seems small probability of getting another, since it would be necessary to go outside of Madison to procure a man to fill the bill. At present the men are reporting to Manager Leitz.

The team has been weakened considerably by the graduation of Elmer Kletzein, captain of last year's team. Another loss which the team will feel will be in Edison Boerke who will be graduated in February.

Dean Kitchen, captain of this year's team, should put up counters for Wisconsin. He has held the championship in tumbling for the past two years, and there seems to be no one in the conference who can take the crown away from him. Walter Porth seems to be as good as last year. If he comes up to his last year's standard of capturing firsts and seconds, we will have another strong man. Frank Kubosch, perhaps one of the best men on the squad, will be another contender for conference honors. Ineligibility kept him from competition last year.

The eleven men who are working out are Captain Dean Kitchen '23, M. E. Hansen '23, W. L. Porth '23, F. L. Bumer '23, T. E. Stevens '24, N. Koch '24, W. Hamman '24, F. W. Kubosch '23, W. E. Pfeiffer '23, Al Thompson '25, and F. C. Whitehead '24. The two latter men are fenceers.

There is a conference meet scheduled with Ohio State but as yet there is no date set. There are two tentative dates, one with Minnesota and another with Chicago. The team wants two other meets.

"With last year's team practically intact and barring accidents, there is no reason why Wisconsin should not come out on top," Manager Frank Leitz said yesterday.

In the second half, after several whistles, he remarked crossly when play was resumed. "What's the matter, ain't this game over yet?"

Mud Treacherous

When Martineau ran from behind his own goal line for about 25 yards, he had intended to punt, but was unable to handle the slippery ball quickly enough to get it in position for the kick.

Marty Below made the left side of the line look like a stone wall. Wisconsin was penalized 25 yards and Minnesota was set back 45 yards.

Referee Masker was dirtier than most of the players when the game ended. His white trousers and shirt were smeared with the mud of Northrup field. One of the officials wore a turkish towel around his neck and used it frequently to wipe off the ball.

Larson Leaves For Buttermakers' Meeting

H. C. Larson of Madison, secretary of the Wisconsin Buttermakers' association will attend the annual convention of that association in La Crosse Tuesday to Thursday.

RUNNERS READY FOR MEET WITH CHICAGO SQUAD

Coach Burke Confident After Win Over Gophers

With the business of beating the Minnesota cross country team successfully completed, Coach Mead Burke of the Badger harriers is bending his efforts toward keeping his men in condition to repeat the performance against Chicago when that team comes to Madison next Saturday.

"If the men run against Chicago as they did against Minnesota, they will beat the Maroon harriers easily," said Burke last night. "The men are in excellent condition as was shown by the ease with which they won over the Gophers on their five mile course."

Wisconsin Favored

Records thus far this season show that Wisconsin will have the edge in the race Saturday. Of the Chicago team, there is only one, Capt. Krogh, who is greatly feared by the Badger runners. He is a man of much experience and will probably push the Badgers for first honors.

If possible, eight men will be run by each team in the race. Of Burke's squad, eight men have showed up particularly well, and the coach wishes to run them all in the race.

Rossmessel In

Rossmessel, after being left home when the team went to Minneapolis Saturday, entered the intercollegiate race over the local course and established a new record for the course. He will probably be the eighth man to run Saturday.

Other men who will run are: Tschudy, Wade, Vellely, Moorhead, Schneider, Ramsey and Perry.

Washington Eleven is in Good Condition

(Special to The Cardinal)

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6—(P. I. N. S.) The varsity still numbers a few casualties among its ranks, although the hurts are rapidly disappearing under the ministrations of trainer "Hee" Edmundson. The condition of the Purple and Gold gridders is causing no worry with the next ten days intervening between games, and the fans are expecting a physically fit eleven to take the field against the Bears next week.

Plan Radio Service For Homecoming Game

The university radio station, W. H. A., is planning to send out radio reports of the Homecoming game Saturday if arrangements can be completed by that time. The station has recently been sending the weather forecast in code and then following each word with the radio telephone, thus allowing amateurs to check their message and to aid them in receiving code messages. E. A. Beane, radio inspector of the ninth government district is expected here sometime during the week end.

Work Delayed on Men's New Swimming Tank

"It will probably be two or three weeks before the swimming tank in the gymnasium will be ready for use," Prof. Guy S. Lowman said last night.

The laying of the tile is nearly complete but after this work is finished a week or two will be required to install the new filter system.

The new tank with its tile floor and sides is a great improvement over the old one, according to Professor Lowman.

State Launches First Indian Girls' Club

GREEN BAY, Wis.—What is believed to be the first club for Indian girls is about to be formed in Green Bay under auspices of the local Y. W. C. A. Plans are to be former at a meeting here tomorrow. The creation of the club will be a big step in the social and physical development of Indian girls, a large number of whom are working in and around this city.

Grid Penalties to Be Marked on Scoreboard

Numbers designating the penalties called in the Illinois-Wisconsin game next Saturday will be raised on the score board immediately after each penalty is called to enable confused spectators to know exactly for what reason a team is penalized.

Forty-one of the more important penalties have been compiled by the athletic department and will be published in the Homecoming Athletic Review. The spectator, by comparing the number posted on the score board with the penalty number in the Review, will be able to know at all times the why and wherefore of the penalties called.

CLEAR TICKET SALE QUESTION

Hunter Answers Questions About Indiana and Illinois Game

"How does it come that students were given $3 seats for the Indiana game and $2.00 and $1.50 seats for the Illinois game?"

That question has been asked often of Paul F. Hunter, director of ticket sales, under whose supervision all tickets for athletic contests are sold and distributed, and who is eager to clear up the situation.

"Under the ruling of the faculty, students cannot be charged more than 50 cents for a ticket for any athletic contest," Mr. Hunter said. "The Athletic council has ruled that they may be provided with the $2.50 seats as long as they last and then given the next best seats available."

"However, when the mail orders for the Indiana game were received and it was evident that even the present permanent seats, numbering 14,000, would not be sold, Director Jones authorized us to begin distributing the $3.00 seats on the west side of the field to the students. This was done for the Indiana game but with the demand for $3.00 seats for the Illinois game, it would have cost the university thousands of dollars to have allowed the students to purchase those seats at only 50 cents."

"In filling the applications for tickets, we began at the center of the field for the $3.00 seats, and the nearest seats toward the center for the $2.50 and $2.00 seats, working away from the center at all times."

"We received the applications of 6,998 students for tickets at 50 cents before the supply was entirely exhausted. There are only about 6,000 $2.50 seats in the stands, so that it was impossible to give all students $2.50 seats. Under the contract, 1,000 $2.50 seats were sent to Champaign, for sale to the Illinois partisans, leaving only about 5,000 for us to distribute."

"Then each student was permitted to purchase up to three additional seats at the public rate, and more than 80 per cent of them applied for the four seats together. Thus those who had their applications in earliest soon exhausted the supply of $2.50 seats and then the $2.00 seats and finally had to be given $1.50 seats."

"This condition will prevail until the stadium is completed or until all seats are sold at one price when the first come will receive the best seats. It is impossible to make any distinction as long as the students are permitted to purchase one seat for themselves and three adjacent ones at public rates. In filling the orders in no case did the man issuing the tickets know for whom they were purchased and it was impossible for him to discriminate."

Homecoming Ticket Held at Gymnasium For Owner

Paul F. Hunter, who is managing the ticket sale for the Homecoming game, is holding a ticket at the gymnasium for someone to claim. An application, accompanied by a cashier's check on a Wausau bank, was received at the ticket office but without the signature of the sender. The person who sent the application may get the ticket by calling at the office of the gymnasium.

BADGERS SHOW POWER IN WIN OVER GOPHERS

Display of Ability Puts Wisconsin High in Grid World

After two weeks of anxious waiting and watching by football fans in the middle west, Wisconsin last Saturday showed the world it has one of the strongest teams in the Conference by laying low the supposedly strong Minnesota team. Nothing but praise has been heard from the sport writers concerning the speedy Badgers. If Minnesota can beat Iowa, if Ohio State can beat Chicago and if Wisconsin can beat Michigan why—but we'll have to wait.

The showing of the Wisconsin team was not a surprise. It just lived up to the hopes of its supporters.

Overconfidence Dangerous

In Illinois, Wisconsin should not find a stumbling block unless overconfidence creeps into the Badger camp. Overconfidence has more than once spoiled perfectly good championship hopes and it can do it again. This case was clearly shown last year when Illinois went through the entire year without tasting victory and then walloped Ohio State who was on the eve of a Conference tie for premier honors.

Certain complications of the past week tend to make the Illinois game next Saturday look as though it were going to be somewhat rough. The Suckers showed something of a weakness last Saturday when they were held to a 6 to 3 victory over Northwestern. Whether that was the best the Illini could do or whether they were saving their strength for Wisconsin remains to be seen.

Michigan Gaining

Michigan continued to reinforce the general knowledge that they have a powerful machine by smothering the Michigan Aggies under a score of 63 to 0. Michigan rests next Saturday and consequently will have two weeks to prepare for the invasion of the Badgers, on November 18. The game with Wisconsin will be the Wolverine homecoming and Coach "Hurry-Up" Yost will do all in his power to make his team produce. In point of middlewest interest the Wisconsin-Michigan game should back the Chicago-Princeton game off the map.

Iowa rested last Saturday and will be all set to meet Coach "Bill" Spaulding's squad from Minnesota. Howard Jones, the Hawkeye coach witnessed the game at Minneapolis last week against Wisconsin and is taking no chances in losing an opportunity to win the title by permitting the Gophers to ride over him. This game will also be the Hawkeye Homecoming and granting that Iowa gets an even number of the breaks they should romp off the field with a victory.

Chicago Meets Ohio

Chicago, which was also idle last week-end, will journey to Ohio State. The downtrodden Buckeyes have been working hard these past two weeks in preparation for the Maroon game and it is not at all improbable that the Buckeyes might ride over the Stagmen for a win. Chicago no doubt has the best team but overconfidence may ruin the chance of the Midwayman.

Northwestern will engage Purdue i what should be one of the most interesting struggles of the week. Although Purdue lost to Wabash by one point they are known to have a fairly strong team and will no doubt give the Purple team a real battle.

Indiana was decisively defeated last Saturday by the powerful Notre Dame squad by a score of 27 to 0. Indiana held both Minnesota and Wisconsin to 20 points so should be able to hand West Virginia a beating next Saturday when those two teams meet in the Hoosiers annual Homecoming.

A TIME FOR COURTESY

SATURDAY 1,000 Illinois students will come to Madison not exactly certain of what Wisconsin's attitude toward them may be.

Now, if ever, then, is a time for each Wisconsin student to consider it his appointed personal task to be not merely courteous but to go out of his way to demonstrate that courtesy and to make the Illini feel at home.

We gave Indiana a royal reception. Indiana vouches for that. We can do the same for Illinois. They deserve it.

IT'S COMING BACK

WHEN 1,000 students voluntarily gather in a drizzling rain early Sunday morning to greet a returning football team, truly may it be said that that indefinable something which is Wisconsin spirit is here, a living force.

It has been traditional that sleep and a rainy Sunday morning are inevitably inseparable. Not so now for 1,000 students when a chance to meet a homecoming team is concerned. And most of them swore they would have turned out even if the train had arrived at 4 o'clock in the morning instead of 7:30. Congratulations!

Old timers who watched the demonstration nodded their heads knowingly and said, "It's coming back."

Never in the recollection of the present day student has such a turnout and celebration taken place. The old timer has to dig back in the far past to recall the time when crowds met homecoming trains, when yelling, hilarious students carried football heroes on their shoulders down the main streets of the town.

We at school here have read of such demonstrations. One thousand of us Sunday had the actual experience of carrying the thing out in reality. It was real sport. After years of inertia, Sunday's activity, a natural reaction, came as a real thrill for us as well as the team.

We repeat with the old timer, "It's coming back,—that something called Wisconsin spirit."

From some sources comes the information that all the opportunities for demonstrations and yelling Sunday morning were not taken advantage of through lack of cheer leadership.

The spontaneity of the occasion, coupled with the fact that Varsity leaders could not be present, excuses any absence of elaborate leadership. Surely the members of the team were not aware of a lack of demonstration. For them the surprise of the turnout was complete. But if more cheer leadership is necessary, it will not be lacking again.

Two more times this year will Wisconsin students have the opportunity to meet home coming trains, —after the Michigan game and after the Chicago game.

One thousand students who have experienced the sport of one turnout will encourage one thousand more to be with them the next time. Here is Wisconsin spirit demonstrated in reality, in concrete acts. We like it. We want more of it.

FIGURES

IN the past week approximately 550 new students have subscribed to the Memorial Union fund. Solicitors report that practically every new student approached has pledged a subscription. The average pledge has been $44.60.

That speaks mighty well for the spirit of the new students.

But there are 2,700 new students. If practically every one approached has subscribed, there are some 2,000 who have not been approached.

The solicitors number 253. Each has a quota of 10 new students to approach. The average solicitor has evidently seen about two of his quota.

The new students are coming through if they are given a chance. The solicitors, old students supposed to be imbued with university spirit and loyalty, are evidently falling down on the job.

Students are willing to cut classes to elect someone to a class office, but they are failing to spend a little time to make Wisconsin's greatest dream a reality. Some sense of proportion and values is needed.

If this year's Memorial Union campaign is to be a success, old students must tear themselves away for a while from Homecoming preparations, from mid-week dates, from any conflicting activities, and do their part in soliciting.

A. W. A. will meet at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night in Lathrop hall.

"Tints and Tones" Saves Orph Bill, Reviewer Says

BY R. B. S.

We can't give all those acts at the Orph this half the good word but as long as "Tints and Tones" is in the running you've got one safe bet. Its music and dancing with both backing and acting of beauty. For the rest of the program we must say that it was pretty much a case of take it or leave it.

THREE DANOISE SISTERS

An acrobatic act which we left.

Stanley, Doyle and Reno

All three in a row for some jazz harmony which was quite entertaining.

"Broken Promises"

An act that still thinks the war is going on and filled with gobs of almost inexcusable gurry.

Hughie Clark

About three hundred pounds of "funny" stuff whose stuff didn't go over as "big" as he did.

"Tints and Tones"

"Smooth" is the best word we could think of for this. An act full of delightful color, equally delightful girls and a "ditto" Valentino to keep the women happy.

His Mad Wags

A troupe of dogs that know enough without a college education.

Homecoming Poster Prize Awards Made By Judges

A silver cup, first prize in the Homecoming poster contest was awarded to Warren Carter '24, by a vote of the judges of the placards. First honorable mention was given to E. R. Wright '25, and Katherine Harrington '25 received second honorable mention. Two high school students, Antoinette Wolf and Allen Lyon received third and fourth honorable mention respectively.

The prize for the best statuette depicting the spirit of Wisconsin went to Kenneth Fagg '23. Fagg's work was a life-size bust of Roland Williams '23. First place for honorable mention was voted to Mrs. Vera Lee '25, and Eleanor Hanson '25, who worked together on a figure. Three other awards for honorable mention were made to Mavis Stone '23, Henry Ewertz '24, and William J. Fronk '24, in the order named.

The judges were forced to make very careful decisions on the work submitted, according to Herbert Brockhausen '23, chairman of the art committees.

Helen Jones Receives Bruises
In Auto Collision
Saturday

Injuries sustained by Helen Jones of Richland Center who was hurt in the collision of two cars late Saturday night, on the corner of Gilman and Carroll streets, are not serious. Both cars were wrecked. The Dodge sedan driven by William F. Bode '26, was demolished completely.

Miss Jones was taken to St. Mary's hospital where her condition was found not to be serious. She left Sunday afternoon for her home at Richland Center. She will remain at home a few days before resuming her work in Senator R. M. La Follette's office in the Capital. She was riding in a new Maxwell touring car with C. J. Knoche, 427 West Dayton street, who escaped with minor injuries.

In the crash, the sedan was turned over completely and thrown on its side against the curb. The wreck is so complete that this car can not be remodeled and Flaherty brothers will receive a new car to replace it. The Maxwell also was badly smashed.

Bode, alone in the Dodge, was driving east along Gilman street at approximately 15 miles an hour when he met the other car going south on Carroll street. The Dodge skidded 60 feet, then struck the Maxwell on the side.

FOREST SERVICE HELPS ALASKA

Bureau Agent Reports Plan is Great Help to Reserves

That there is a growing appreciation of the work of the Forest Service in Alaska is the opinion of L. T. Markwardt, who has recently returned to Madison from an extended trip through that country. Mr. Markwardt was sent by the Forest Service in order to obtain reliable data and woods for testing the mechanical properties of wood grown in the United States.

The policies and aims of the Forest Service are becoming better understood, according to Mr. Markwardt, and the people are learning that the National Forests are for development and use and not merely "reserves."

That the work of the Forest Products Laboratory here is well worth while was shown clearly by the fact that the results of the research on shipping containers conducted here is known as far north as Cordova and Prince William Sound.

The problem for railroad timber, in Alaska, as in the United States, is durability. At present there are no treading plants in use.

Eline's
Sweet Milk Chocolate
With Roasted Almonds

(Actual size 5½ inches long)

Would you feed your child skimmed milk?

Not an ounce of skimmed milk in Eline's Chocolate. Skimmed milk isn't good enough. All the nourishing cream and butter fat is removed from skimmed milk (whether powdered or unpowdered). The farmers use skimmed milk to feed cattle and hogs.

We use nourishing whole cream milk—from cows that feed in the fertile, emerald green fields of Wisconsin—and drink crystal pure water from spring-fed lakes and babbling brooks. That's one reason why Eline's is so supremely nourishing.

Really good chocolate cannot be made unless the manufacturer is located in a good dairying district where he can get good milk and get it fresh each day.

The Eline Plant is in the heart of the greatest dairying district in the world, not second even to the fertile fields of Switzerland and Denmark.

We use the finest cocoa beans, the purest sugar, and then we take the time necessary to make Eline's right.

Eline's is marvelously smooth and deliciously good, yet—it costs no more than common chocolate.

BADGER POSTS SENIOR LISTS

Urge Immediate Checking of Summaries With Lists Posted

Four lists of seniors whose summaries have been filed in the Badger office were posted yesterday at Bascom hall, Agricultural hall, Engineering building and Sterling hall.

All seniors have been requested by the Badger editors to ascertain whether their names are on the list, and if not, to come to the Badger and make immediate arrangements for summaries. All inquiries must be in within the next ten days.

A number of people called Monday to make corrections in the posted lists or to arrange to have summaries filed.

"As a result of conversations with several seniors who have called at the Badger office, we realize that there is a slight misunderstanding of the purpose of posting the lists of summaries received," Margaret Brown, editor of the senior section, said. "Four lists of the names of those whose summaries have been received have been posted. The purpose of posting these lists is to let all seniors know whether the summaries which they have mailed have been received. Some have been lost in the mails, and there is a possibility that in handling the twelve hundred cards returned to the office, some might have been misplaced. Although we do not intend this as a loophole for delinquents, any summaries which are delivered at the Badger office before November 10 will be accepted."

Nov. 11 is National and Local Holiday in Madison

Armistice Day, November 11, which has been appointed a national holiday will be doubly celebrated in Madison due to Homecoming. On November 4, Governor Blaine issued a proclamation stating that the day would be observed here as one fitting for the people to "turn their minds and pledge their efforts to carry out the world's aspiration for peace and civilization." The Homecoming plans are going forward rapidly and it is expected that Madison will truly celebrate on that day with a national as well as a local commemoration.

TWO CO-EDS TO ASSIST FRANCE

Francis Hughes and Beatrice Morgan to Compete in Contest

Of the five delegates who were nominated for the Good Will delegation, which is being sponsored by The State Journal, two are from the university. One of them, Miss Francis Hughes, is a senior in the College of Letters and Science, and a major in sociology. The other, Miss Beatrice Morgan, is a graduate with the class of '21.

The Good Will election is carried on under the auspices of the Committee for Devastated France. The winner will act as a Madison delegate to France. An extended trip through various parts of France will acquaint the delegates with the work that the committee is doing here.

To Hold Reception at Rheims

The trip will include many places of interest, among them Rouen, Brionne, Lisieux and an extended tour of the battle fronts of Brittany and Normandy. The delegates will also visit Rennes and from there they will go to Langeais, following the valley of the Loire.

In Rheims there will be a reception held in their honor, and later Cardinal Lucon, who stood guard over the Cathedral throughout the German offense against the city, will receive the guests.

Visit in Paris Also

After a trip through the Argonne Forest, and a stay at Verdun, where the delegation will be received officially at the Prefecture and where they will spend a night in the fortress, the journey will be continued to Paris, other interesting cities being visited on the way, among them Chamery, where the grave of Quentin Roosevelt is located.

In Paris the program of the delegates includes a visit to the famous Luxembourg museum, and a reception by the officials of the municipality at the City Hall. The Louvre, Les Invalides, and the Pantheon de la Guerre, in which is that renowned painting typifying the nations and the Great War, and Versailles, the scene of the Peace Conference, will be visited.

Schools to Use 100 Tons of Coal in December

One hundred tons of coal a day during the month of December is the estimated amount needed to heat university buildings during that month. That means nearly half a ton of coal for every student enrolled in the university.

On November 1, exactly 3,720 tons of soft coal were on hand. Twelve cars with 540 tons have been recently received, and eight cars are now enroute.

The estimated consumption for November is 2,500 tons and for December it is 3,100 tons.

Now beautify teeth in this way
Millions of them—the world over

Careful people, well advised, now use a new teeth-cleaning method — millions of them in every clime, and largely by dental advice.

Beautiful teeth you see everywhere show the results of this method.

It is something you should know. Learn what it means to you and yours. Make this free ten-day test.

Combats the dingy film

It is film that makes teeth dingy — that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Food stains discolor it, then it forms thin cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film.

The ordinary tooth paste does not end film. So most teeth, in the old days, were more or less discolored.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film. Under old methods, they were constantly increasing. The most careful people rarely escaped.

Two combatants now

Dental science, after long research, has found two film combatants. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it. Able authorities have amply proved their efficiency. Now leading dentists the world over are urging their daily use.

A new tooth paste has been created, based on modern research. It brings five effects now considered essential. It avoids several old mistakes.

This tooth paste is called Pepsodent. And those two great film combatants are embodied in it.

Other desired effects

Modern research has found other things essential, and Pepsodent brings those effects.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits on teeth which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize the acids which cause decay.

Thus Pepsodent gives manifold power to Nature's great tooth-protecting agents. It polishes the teeth so film less easily adheres. Old-time tooth pastes, based on soap and chalk, brought just opposite effects.

In these ways, Pepsodent is bringing a new dental era. Already it has brought to millions whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. The peoples of fifty nations are being taught to use it. And their children will get life-long benefits which your childhood missed.

Why Men's Teeth
Glisten everywhere today

The film on teeth of men who smoke becomes especially discolored. But note how men's teeth glisten nowadays — men who remove the film. Note how men and women, when they smile, are showing pretty teeth. Those are Pepsodent effects, now attained by millions, largely through dental advice. They do not come by scouring teeth in any harmful way, but by scientific film removal.
