NOTED ARTISTS WILL PLAY FOR BOARD CONCERT

Spain, Russia, America to Contribute Musicians
This Season

Spain, Russia, and America will each contribute a musician from among their foremost artists for the Union board concerts to be held this year.

Casals is Popular

From Spain comes Pablo Casals, a musician who is renowned for making the cello the "king of stringed instruments" in the estimation of his hearers in the United States and abroad. His technique is remarkable for its accuracy, his interpretation is appealing and distinctive, his artistry is fascinating and never-failing. Of Casals the master Fritz Kreisler said, "He is the greatest musician who has ever drawn a bow."

Fill Many Engagements.

Russia sends as her contribution Mischa Elman, a native of the town of Taloje. This young artist, who is not yet in his thirties, is making his ninth tour of the United States. Every concert season finds Elman filling more than a hundred engagements, but it is announced that this season's concert tour is the greatest he has ever made in this country.

Werrenrath is Fortunate

Reinald Werrenrath, foremost American baritone of today, will represent the best of American musical art in the concert series. Unlike the two artists from abroad Werrenrath has been spared the struggle for success which is the lot of so many artists. Naturally equipped with a voice of unusual beauty and an attractive personality, he was fortunate in having a family who could and did give him a broad cultural education with his musical training. He has sung with the Boston Symphony orchestra and with the Philadelphia orchestra and has given successful recitals in New York, Boston, Chicago and London.

Season tickets are on sale at the Union building and at the A. E. Smith Music company. The price is $4 and $5 for students. A large number have been sold.

NEW PLAN DEVISED FOR BANK ACCOUNTS

A new method of handling student checking accounts has been devised by the Commercial National bank in the form of miniature traveler's checks.

The new checks carry the students own signature witnessed by the officers of the bank. This signature must be duplicated before the check can be cashed, thereby almost entirely eliminating any chance of forgery.

Overdrafts are impossible as the checks are issued in small denominations, bound in $25, $50, $75, and $100 books. They are a safe substitute for cash and are convenient in every way to both student and merchant.

J. D. Phillips, university business manager, welcomed the introduction of this new system by arranging for the bank to post descriptive sketches on the bulletin boards at the university. "I am glad to introduce an efficient solution of this problem," said Mr. Phillips.

Cardinal Will Publish Ticket Sale Directions

The athletic department is preparing an open letter of directions explaining the method of ticket sale for football games this fall and basketball matches this winter, which will be published in The Daily Cardinal and sent by mail to alumni and others within a week.

The old system of coupon books will not be revived this year, due largely to extreme limitations in seating capacity. It is expected that books will be sold in the spring for baseball, track, and tennis at an estimated price of $2.50.

Agrics Plan Frosh Welcome For Friday

Tickets two inches in diameter, and consisting of green printing on a plain white background will be sold on the campus tomorrow for the Agric-Home Economics freshman welcome to be held in Lathrop hall Friday, Sept. 9. Cardinal colored strings are attached to them so that they may be worn to and from classes.

Students planning to attend the welcome should procure tickets at once so that refreshments may be planned for the large number expected to attend, declared Marvin Schaars '24, chairman of the tickets committee. Refreshments will be served free to those who attend the welcome.

The price of the tickets will be reasonable, members of the committee in charge have said.

CAMPUS FRATS IN NEW HOMES

Four Social and Two Professional Fraternities Move Since June

Six fraternities, four social and two professional, have moved to new locations since the end of the last year.

Phi Kappa Psi is temporarily located at 148 Langdon street until the completion of their new house at State street and Sterling court. The three story lodge costing approximately $40,000, will be one of the finest in Madison. It will be possible to convert almost all of the first floor into a large ball room. The building will have 18 small rooms as well as a large dormitory on the third floor.

Tau Kappa Epsilon has moved from 619 Mendota court to 216 East Gilman street, and Phi Kappa, formerly at 407 Wisconsin avenue, is occupying its new lodge at 289 East Gilman street.

Delta Pi Delta, journalism professional fraternity, which occupied a temporary lodge last year, is now located at 501 North Henry street. The building, formerly known as the Inverness apartments, is being remodeled at the present time.

Kappa Psi, professional pharmaceutical medical fraternity, has moved from 115 Ely place to 640 North Frances street.

Permanent Jobs Scarce Reports Y. M. Secretary

Although permanent positions for students are scarce there are several openings for those desiring part time work, according to "Dad" Wolf of the Y. M. C. A. Salesmen and men for work on nearby farms are especially needed.

The employment department of the university Y. M. C. A. is helping men each day to find short and long time jobs. Men applying for these positions have had experience in all lines of work including clerking, stenography, typing, accounting, truck driving, tutoring, drafting and window washing.

S. G. A. LIBRARY HAS NINETY NEW BOOKS

More than 90 volumes of recent fiction are to be placed in the S. G. A. room on Monday for the use of students who wish to rent them out.

The small fee of two cents a day "is merely to insure the return of the volumes, not to defray the cost," said Cleo Parsley '23 president. "The service is purely for accommodation, and to foster the growing interest among students in wholesome current books of the day."

Books may be drawn out on application during regular office hours from 10 to 12 and 2 to 4 daily. "If there is sufficient demand, a librarian may even be installed during the noon hour," announced Harriet Green '24, chairman of the library board. Twice a month new books recommended by the board will be added. Membership on this board will be changed frequently to insure freshness and variety in suggestions.

ANNUAL DRIVE FOR BADGER TO OPEN ON OCT. 3

Solicitors Will Attempt to Close Campaign at Early Date

A whirlwind drive to sell a copy of the 1924 Badger to every student in the university will open Monday, October 3, according to Howard Lyman '24, business manager.

Have New Plan

Teams of solicitors comprised of ten men and ten women will start work to canvass fraternities, sororities and rooming houses in an attempt to make the sale complete at an early date. According to the new plan recommended by the deans last year, women solicitors will canvass among women only, and men solicitors will be depended upon to surpass the large subscription numbers obtained formerly by women.

Offer Prizes.

"Any one desiring to work on the canvassing teams can apply at the Badger office during the coming week," Willard Kirchner '24 said Saturday.

"Each team will have a captain who will have complete charge of the team's work. A gold fountain pen will be given to members of the team having the highest aggregate score, and a gold pen will be given to the man and woman having the highest individual score. The five men and five women attaining the highest individual scores will be considered members of the Badger circulation staff and will have their pictures in the Badger."

Captains to Meet.

Captains of the various teams will meet Tuesday night to be addressed by Prof. E. A. Gardner on salesmanship. Instructive talks will be given to other members of the teams on Wednesday and Thursday nights, according to Howard Lyman.

The Badger will sell at $4 cash payment this year, Lyman stated. The usual opportunity to extend payments will again be offered. A first payment of $2 with a payment of $2.50 on delivery of the book is the plan to be adopted this year.

"While simplicity is to be the keynote of the 1924 Badger, its art work will by far surpass the 1923 edition," Lyman said. "We will have art work done by some of the best artists in the country. Each of the teams which will do the soliciting will be instructed upon the many improvements planned for our Badger so the members of the teams can tell everyone about them."

Birge to Give Address At Badger Club Tonight

"Religion as Related to Science" is the address President Birge will give tonight at the Badger club meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

Community singing and special music will complete the program of the evening. Refreshments will be served. All university men and women are invited.

Enrollment of Bonus Students Falls to 675

The number of bonus students has decreased from 1100 last year to the present enrollment of 675, with a promise of 700 students by next week. University officers could give no reason for the decreased enrollment as the $1080 allowed each bonus student, has not been used up by any of them. Of those registered at present a large per cent are freshmen or transfers from other schools.

WEATHER: COOLER

Fair and cooler weather is in prospect for Madison today and tonight. Monday also is predicted to be cooler.

Union Board Dances To Open at Lathrop

The Nelson-Fairbanks orchestra will play at the first Union Board dance which will be given at Lathrop parlors next Saturday. Several features have been added to the program.

"These are couple dances, and the only ones in city given by a student organization exclusively for university students," said Oscar A. Sander '24, who is in charge of the dances this semester.

The Badger room will be used for private parties this semester, and is available to any campus organization. Terms may be arranged with Gordon Wanzer by calling B. 191.

Polly of the Follies

Opens at Grand Today

Life's bitterest moment may be described as the day of unstinted ridicule; but Constance Talmadge faces her day of despair and gets away with it for a laugh as she romps before the footlights in "Polly of the Follies," her latest First National attraction that is scheduled to open a week's run at the Grand Theatre today.

The breezy star of light comedies has a new viewpoint of the am- bitious, stage-struck country girl, and she presents it in a laughable fashion in an original story that has been written for her by John Emer- son and Anita Loos.

It is Bobby Jones, the idol of her heart who is engaged to another girl, who supplies the knowledge of how to get at Flo Ziegfeld, the famous creator of beauty choruses, and Polly follows the trail into the managerial lairs of the famous one. Her debut on the stage and its to- tally unexpected sequence provide a conclusion that stands out as a surprise in pictures of this theme. Kenneth Harlan is an excellent foil for Miss Talmadge and George Fawcett has a strong character part.

VARSITY SQUAD SCRIMMAGES IN PIERCING HEAT

First and Second Teams Have Usual Drill at Randall

Sweltering under the piercing heat of a hot September sun, Coach John R. Richards and his forty candidates for the Wisconsin Varsity football squad went through their usual training licks on the Camp Randall practice field yesterday afternoon.

Despite the mercury's sudden rise, Richards sent his first and second teams through a scrimmage which left the men tired and worn out after two hours of work under the baking rays of Old Sol. To even up the strength of the two elevens, the big coach shifted Capt. "Rollie" Williams and quarterback Barr to the second outfit while "Bob" Whitten went to left half on the Varsity eleven and Schneider ran the team from the quarterback position.

Schneider Plays Quarter

Merrill Taft was stationed at full-back and Gibson held down right half. Schneider appears to be getting the call for reserve quarterback instead of Millman. He worked Friday night and last night, and handled the team with speed and efficiency. Schneider obtained some of his football training at the United States Naval academy, Annapolis. He played with the Wisconsin frosh squad for a short time last year.

Brumm May Return

Pearce took his center post on the second team during the scrimmage. With Nichols, he is making a strong bid for the position. It is possible that the two may be alternated in the early games. Roman "Kibo" Brumm is practically sure of being back in the game before the Big Ten season ends and it is said that he may return in time for some of the heavier games. If "Kibo" is in good condition, he can step in at center providing that neither Pearce nor Nichols prove satisfactory to Coach Richards. Brumm worked at center during the 1918 S. A. T. C. season here. He was tried at the post for a while last season, but was shifted to guard and finally to tackle before the year ended.

Murray and Below constitute as fine a pair of tackles as can be found. Below is a veteran on the gridiron. After playing in high school, "Marty" Below entered Oshkosh normal and starred with the eleven from that school. Murray has considerable experience behind him, and although this is his first year with the Varsity, he looks like a safe bet for a line position.

Ends Look Good

Christianson and Hohlfeld are two of the three veterans in the forward wall. Both are built big and strong, bulky enough to plug any hole in the Wisconsin line. Hohlfeld was uncovered last year and in his first season on the gridiron, he developed into a regular. Steady "Gus" Tebelle, the Rock of Gibraltar in Wisconsin's line, is the third veteran. Tebelle is due for the best season in his career, which is saying something when the wingman's previous showings are taken into consideration. The end is a notable example of "the right man in the right place at the right time." Plays around his flank are smothered with eclat. Pulaski is being groomed for the left end, but Russell Irish held the position on the first team last night.

Speaking of left ends, Frank Laurence "Hootie," "Red" Weston watched the boys go through their paces at Camp Randall yesterday. Weston was one of the best ends in Badger history. He played Varsity ball for three years, captaining the team in 1920.

Skill practice will start next week for the squad. Coach Richards devotes an hour to tracing plays on the blackboard and what the men assimilate in the evening, they demonstrate the next afternoon.

"Jimmy" Brader, the be-mousted assistant coach, and "Chuck" Carpenter are helping to whip the line into shape.

Centre's Grid Leader Hopes for Good Team

Red Roberts.

RED ROBERTS one of the leading figures in Centre college's spectacular gridiron performances the past seasons, will captain this year's team. He is optimistic over the eleven's outlook for this fall.

Cross Country Squad of 43 Men Starts Training

The present personnel of the 1922 Varsity cross country squad, 43 men in all, constitutes one of the largest groups of harriers ever starting the training season at Wisconsin.

Recent additions to the squad have transformed it from a handful of candidates to a throng of enthusiastic runners. The list of members now contains names of ten seniors, five of whom are award winners; fifteen juniors, and eighteen sophomores. Nine freshmen up to date have signed up for the freshmen hill and dale team.

Coach Mead Burke drilled his men in easy conditioning work all of last week, but he is gradually increasing the distance traveled each day. Yesterday the squad, using the stock pavilion as headquarters, covered a distance of about two and one-half miles for the longest workout of the season. The standard course of five miles will not be run until the first part of October.

The personnel of the cross country team is as follows: George Finkle, '24, Captain; Enos Jones, '23, manager; Robert Black, '24, assistant manager; Mead Burke, coach; Ramsey, '23, W. Wade, '23, W. Moorehead, '23, aWa; Rossmeisel, '23, aWa; Daniels, '23, aWa.

Seniors—Chase, Jungers, Tschudy, Powell.

Juniors—Herrman, Kober, Smithsonian, Schneider, Stewart, Straka, Gunderson, Peterson, Link, Williams, Paciotti, Dowling, Sommer, Lessing.

Sophomores—Valley, Trier, Grubb, Sherman, Swingle, Perry, Vaile, Cizor, Cohen, Stiles, Hilberts, Busby, Nieman, Larson, Lange, Hansen, Haase, Welker, Bergstesser.

Freshmen—Jones, Sorenson, Messner, Halperin, Davenport, Durham, Kennedy, Thayer, Moller.

WRESTLERS SET FOR TITLE BOUT AT 2:30 TODAY

Larney Lichenstein Will Be Third Man in Ring

Jimmie Demetral and Johnny Meyers await the gong which will call them to battle for the world's middleweight wrestling championship at 2:30 this afternoon in the Monona park auditorium ring. Meyers is present champion, but Demetral may be able to write the magic words before or after his name when the finish match ends today.

Larney Lichenstein, manager of heavyweight Joe Pesek, will be the third man in the ring when the men grapple for the title. Lichenstein was chosen over Joe Coffroth and Ed Smith, sports editor of the Chicago American.

Evko and Romanoff will meet in a match preliminary to the struggle for the world's championship. The men are heavy weights and it is claimed by Evko's manager that "Strangler" Lewis has several times refused to meet his man.

Madison sporting men are strong in their support of the local Greek. Much money has been flashed for Demetral and although he is the underdog, his supporters are confident that he will capture the crown today. Whether Demetral wins or loses, he has shown that he is a clean, square wrestler and a credit to the game which has been called the "Shadiest of Sports."

SURING—William Benz slipped and broke his leg. He broke the leg two inches below the present break about nine months ago, when he fell while climbing up his silo.

Varsity Tennis Tryouts Will Be Held This Week

First tryouts for Varsity tennis will be held Monday afternoon. Entries having poured into the office at the Gym for the last few days. From the number of good men who have already signed up, keen competition is assured.

Moulding and Hastings, third and fourth men, respectively on the regular Varsity team last year are signed up. Treadwell, captain of last year's team, will be in the running when the finals are played off. Bennett and Henika, two men of Varsity calibre, are on the list. They have both played a good deal this summer and will give a good account of themselves in the tryouts.

It is reported that Aagesen, a regular on the team two years, is in school again this fall. As yet, he has made no entry at the gym, but if he is eligible for play and has kept in practice, he is bound to pace high in the tryouts.

Beside these men of known ability are several good men from last year's frosh team who will make the path to victory a difficult one for the older men.

Entries for the freshman tryouts are not yet what they should be. The list will be left open for a few more days in the hope many more yearling players will sign up. Coach Linden is very anxious for all fresh-payers to report as quickly as possible in order that he may get the tournament under way.

Not a great deal is known of the strength of freshman material. Robinson, a Madison boy who placed high in the state tournament last spring has his name on the list, and there are doubtless many other frosh of ability who will make their presence known in a few days.

Thompson's Orchestra to Play For Cameo Dances

Thompson's all star Cameo orchestra will play for the dances in the Cameo room, 117 Monona ave., this year. The first student dance was held Friday night. Members of the orchestra are: Willard Summer, Cecil Brodt, Ted Stevens, Ned Ivey, R. S. Halls, Robert Luhmen, and Bob Derigan. Each man plays from two to four instruments.

Chinese Soccer Team Holds Internationals

The international soccer team played the Chinese student team on the lower campus yesterday afternoon. The score was 1 to 1.

The Internationals put through their goal in the first half, and not until five minutes before the end of the game did the Chinese men make their point, tying the score.

Both teams will be practicing for their second game Saturday on the lower campus.

1922 FOOTBALL WILL BE GREAT REPORT STATES

Holocaust Year On Gridiron Predicted in New York

New York, This will be a holocaust year on the gridiron.

After the great strides that football has made in the last few years it sounds bromidic to say that the coming season will be the greatest in the game's history. Yet that's the fact.

First Game Sept. 23

The season won't start any earlier, nor is there any likelihood of it extending past New Year's—the day of the usual carnival game at Los Angeles—but it will be stuffed and choked from the first kick-off September 23 with the ingredients that bring hundreds of thousands away from warm fire-sides to freeze in cold blasts.

Opponents of the inter-sectional idea have contended that the game becoming the god before which education was being sacrificed get small comfort from a perusal of these schedules. At least 40 games will be held that it will take at least a night on the sleeper for one of the opposing teams to reach. Intersection Contests

One the five Saturdays beginning with October 7 there will be at least six or seven intersectional contests, scattered all over the country. Kansas is coming to West Point, Georgia Tech and Princeton are going to Chicago, the "Prayin' Colonels" from Center College, Danville, Ky., are scheduled at Harvard, Nebraska has a date with Syracuse, Notre Dame will tussle with Army at West Point, Alabama will scrimmage with Pennsylvania at Philadelphia—just to pick a few at random.

East Loses Monopoly

The season of 1922 marks further loosening of the monopoly that the East once had on the big contests. There not only are more games scheduled than ever before but there are more inter-sectional contests, and intra-sectional matches of genuine importance than the pigskin dreamed.

Yale and Harvard both said last Fall that they would not tread in the path of Princeton and invade the Western Conference. Just the same the schedules show that two weeks before the Tiger is clawing around at the University of Chicago, the Bull Dog will be snarling at Iowa, in the bowl at New Haven. Harvard apparently is satisfied with entertaining the team from the Blue Grass State.

FORTY-SIX MEN

SOME forty-six men, less than two per cent of those in the three upper classes, have reported at Camp Randall for football practice.

Dozens of others, big, husky men, potential stars are taking their exercise by sauntering up the hill, shooting billiards, and wearing out the floor of the Cameo room.

These men should be working out there on the gridiron. Student opinion, if not ambition and college loyalty, should force men capable of athletic competition to go out for a Varsity team.

At Oxford university, in England, students are not forced to attend classes.

Only one thing is compulsory at Oxford; that is participation in some kind of athletics. From noon until tea-time everybody plays. And that is compulsory only by the irresistible force of student opinion.

Each of the 24 little colleges that make up Oxford has one or two teams in every kind of sport. An intra-mural game causes more enthusiasm than a contest with Cambridge.

At Wisconsin, student spirit and opinion has brought out 46 men for Varsity football.

Just Suppose

What if that Oxford spirit were transplanted to Wisconsin?

Wisconsin would need a new gymnasium tomorrow.

Instead of a new stadium for thousands to watch 22 men play football, Wisconsin would need new athletic fields so that hundreds of men could play football. New tennis courts would be needed, new cinder tracks and several new shells.

Fewer cases of nervous breakdown would be reported by the clinic. Fewer students would flunk out of school.

Physical and nervous power acquired in vigorous sports would carry students through many a trying hour of study. Clear heads would minimize the hours with books.

Will power can substitute for energy for a while, but sooner or later self-driving results in disaster.

Some wonder how Varsity athletes spending hours in practice are able to maintain their scholastic standings. They are able to maintain them because their heads are clear and their bodies sound.

Compulsory Exercise

UNDERCLASSMEN take compulsory exercise now.

Track classes trot up behind the hydraulics lab and recline on the grass. We have seen a corrective gym class pitching pennies for exercise.

The wearing of the freshman cap was compulsory last year; a freshman cap was a rare sight.

The wearing of the cap is voluntary this year; the campus is bright with green. Student opinion has done that.

Perhaps, some time in the Utopian vistas of the future, someone will devise a method for making athletics a Wisconsin voluntary and compulsory at the same time.

DORMITORIES NEEDED

A plan for private capital to build dormitories has been proposed by Israel Shrimski, president of the alumni association. The idea is that land be leased to the builders of the dormitories and that the dormitories be leased to the university.

Legislative action to make the project legal is necessary, according to the attorney general's opinion.

That legislation should be proposed and passed as soon as the legislature convenes.

Every student who approaches the legislators from his district and urges the passage of such legislation will be performing an invaluable service to the university.

Adequate dormitories for men are Wisconsin's greatest need, next to the Union Memorial building.

Every fall the housing problem presents itself. Large numbers of students are forced after long search, to take unsuitable rooms. Unsuitable because of exorbitant rents and poor location.

At the same time, the group spirit possible only with centralized lodging is lost. A vast number of students living in isolated quarters miss much of the most valuable part of undergraduate life.

Large rooming houses, the "Y" and fraternities do much to mitigate this condition, but only university dormitories can solve the problem.

Isabel Rescues 68

From Lake in Year

Sixty-eight lives rescued from the lake this last year is the record of Captain Isabel of the university boathouse. Two thirds of those rescued are not students.

The university secured the services of this man seven years ago, and in his capacity as university life-saver, Captain Isabel has rescued nearly 300 lives, failing only twice to reach the spot on time.

Intending to stay only four months, he has been on the job ever since he was first engaged.

"Business was brisk," he said, "so I stuck around."

Getting his first experience at the age of eleven on his uncle's ship, Isabel tried everything from cook to captain. At sixteen he was sailing a vessel, and at one time he captained a pleasure yacht on a cruise around the Great Lakes. For 35 years he was captain in both the freight and passenger service.

Thirty years were spent as a diver, and he has a record of 106 feet as the deepest water in which he worked. Altogether, Captain Isabel has had a varied existence.

"We have about eight hundred canoes and rowboats here at the boat house alone, and it kept the old Cardinal pretty busy some days when they were all out. The Cardinal is a good boat, but she is nine years old, and there is plenty of work for two boats."

The Isabel was designed and built under the directions of the Captain but it was not until last Friday, when he went to take it from the box car, that he knew what its name was to be. It is supposed that several people who owe the captain gratitude for their lives were instrumental in having the new boat christened.

INTERCOLLEGiate CLUB

All girls who are transfers from other colleges are invited to the Inter-collegiate club dinner, September 30, 5:30 to 8 o'clock in the S. G. A. room at Lathrop hall. Tickets are 50 cents and can be secured at the Y. W. C. A. office until Friday noon.

FOOTBALL CANDIDATES

Candidates for all-American and sophomore football teams are asked to report to Coach Lowman at Camp Randall at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

SKYROCKETS

Big Day yesterday.

Never saw so many girls wearing hats since we left the eskimos.

TEN thousand gallons of tea absorbed.

KAPPAS served Russian tea. (wise crack!)

SAW eight pairs of new fangled boot style footwear.

RUSHEES are forming a protective association. Meet at Grady's this a. m. at 9. Bring your own matches.

YESTERDAY a bakery wagon truck was rushing to the Kappa Delta house with an order of high-powered cakes for rushee consumption. Hit a fire plug on Gilman street and spilt the goodies all over the asphalt. Answer: Dogs ate all the Kappa Deltas confections. This is against Pan-Hell rules.

"Yes, I can give you a job. You can gather the eggs for me if you promise not to steal any."

"Don't worry, lady, I worked in a bath house fifteen years and never took a bath."

LADY PATIENT—Hello doctor. Doc—Oh, I see you're back again. L. P.—How dare you! Get away from that X-ray machine!

HAND-shaking is pretty near over now.

SIGMA NU frosh calling up a senior girl he met at the dance Friday nite—Sure, you remember me, I met you last night—you know—the boy with the pinch-back suit.

HIGH & LOFTY—(Giving him the air) Why, yes, but really I couldn't go out with a child.

S. N. F.—Oh, I beg your pardon.

CLASSES begin Monday.

PRETTY near time that we hear all about Car Russel Fish's red vest

MR. JORDAN will be in town soon to tell all about Wisconsin spirit.

THEN about that time, Dean Roe will kick out a lot of frosh.

THE A. T. OS will lose about fifteen.

ALSO the Phi Deltas.

AND THEN the Deltas will sober up for exams.

DEAN Goodnight will probe the Skull and Crescent initiation, threaten to kick them off the list and the school year will be off in a cloud.

HE—This storm is likely to put the lights out. Are you afraid?

SHE—Not if you take that cigar out of your face.

THE ABOVE is fifteen years old but then maybe some frosh will enjoy it.

TRI DELTS are going to build a new house. Going to have bath room, dining room, bed room and living—beg your pardon—living room.

ALL those who have not registered by Nov. 1 will have to pay a fine of one dollar. Also, no-cut rule is enforced after Thanksgiving.

NOT going to take in the piers this year. Going to put anti-freeze in the lake. Frosh are getting too lazy.

NEW Campus restaurant is quite pretentious looking. Disappointed yesterday when we couldn't get chafing dish service.

Wife Does Not Have To Press Hubby's Pants

CHICAGO — A marriage contract does not call for "personal service" according to Judge William L. Morgan of the Court of Domestic Relations. The question was raised yesterday by Mrs. Edward Hogan, who said she would live with her husband, cook his meals and make his bed, but that she understood a marriage contract did not call for "personal service." She explained that she meant pressing his clothes, washing his collars and so forth.

"You're right," the court ruled, "let him press his own."

Charges Daugherty Did Not Prosecute Grafters

WASHINGTON — The impeachment move against Attorney General Daugherty gained further support today when Representative Woodruff (Michigan), republican, announced that he would appear before the house judiciary committee in December to present evidence of the attorney general's failure to prosecute war graft cases.

He made known his intention today in a letter to Representative Volstead (Minnesota), chairman of the judiciary committee. Representative Woodruff, a world war veteran, has made frequent charges against Mr. Daugherty in the house, threatening to bring impeachment proceedings unless he took action against the war grafters.

Find Mondovi Bank Robbery Loot in South

Three Held at Memphis For Trying to Sell Stolen Bonds

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Further information will be sought today by the police of this city relative to the operations of N. T. Arvidson, W. J. Pierce and Frank H. Prindle, arrested at a local hotel Thursday with a large amount of government bonds and other securities in their possession which it is said by police they were trying to sell to a business man, formerly a bank official in this city.

According to the police, some of the bonds found in their room at their hotel were part of loot stolen from G. A. Blakeslee and company of Galien, Mich., and the First National Bank of Mondovi, Wis.

In the arrest and the seizure of $16,500 of alleged stolen securities, $12,000 of which were Liberty bonds, police claim to have bared a plan to dispose of alleged stolen securities valued at more than $150,000.

The three men are held on federal warrants charging possession of stolen government securities and conspiracy to dispose of stolen United States bonds.

City Has Lowest Infant Death Rate, Council Told

Madison has the lowest infant death rate of any city in the United States, according to a report of Dr. C. E. Mendenhall, of the Public Welfare Association at a luncheon last night at headquarters, 22 N. Hancock St., at which the mayor, city auditor and city council were guests.

The rate of infant mortality in other cities of the state is 8 of every 100 while in Madison the rate has been kept at 5 of every 100. Dr. Mendenhall stated that a close watch is kept on all infants in the city through visiting nurses but asked that a third nurse be added to handle the increased work this year.

Other departments of the association reported favorably on work done during the past year in which the association spent a total of $19,216 in care of children and family work. Most of this money has been raised through private contributions, with some from tax day proceeds and the dog show which netted the association about $1,000, and other sources.

Mrs. William Kittle read the financial report of each department.

Judge Grants U.S. Petition on Rail Injunction

Declares Evidence Shows Presence of Violence Conspiracy

CHICAGO—Judge J. H. Wilgerson today granted Atty. Gen. Daugherty's petition for a nationwide temporary injunction against the striking railway shopmen.

Judge Wilkerson in a lengthy review of the case, said the defendants could not deny knowledge and responsibility for the widespread violence.

The court gave attorneys for the defense until Monday morning at 10 o'clock to study the decision and prepare to argue the text of the injunction order which will be signed.

Atty. Gen. Daugherty on Thursday presented the government's proposed draft, which is even more drastic than the restraining order now in force.

The order will affect about 270 officers and 400,000 members of the six crafts belonging to the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

Identification that the shopcraft leaders would appeal from Judge Wilkerson's decree was given by Donald R. Richberg, counsel for B. M. Jewell, president, and John Scott, secretary of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

It is considered probable that the strikers will appeal to the supreme court because of the importance of the case. The temporary injunction to be issued Monday will supersede the temporary restraining order issued Sept. 1.

Probe Child's Death

In Theatre Crash

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—City officials conducting an investigation of the collapse of the Foyer of the Strand Theater yesterday afternoon began this forenoon to take statements of some of the 58 children, most of whom were injured when the concrete floor dropped to the basement.

Madeline Kunkle, aged 8, one of those invited to the free showing of the picture, "The Trap" was killed and 18 of the injured are in hospitals. Only four are in a critical condition. Seven sustained broken arms or legs. Free tickets had been issued to school children for yesterday's show. Scores clustered about the corridor awaiting admission. Then came the crash and the joyous throng was dropped 15 feet into the cellar and covered with blocks of rock and concrete.

Prepare New Bonus Bill for Next Congress

Will Carry Finance Provision To Meet Hardings O. K.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Soldiers' bonus legislation is to be revised in the house as well as in the senate when December comes, and its proponents do not believe that the bill to be passed at the next session will meet a presidential veto.

Representative Fordney, Mich., chairman of the ways and means committee, will introduce the house bill. In the senate the new measure already has been introduced by Senator Bursum (N. M.).

"I will reintroduce the bonus bill the first day of the December session," said Mr. Fordney. "I believe we can put it through at that time. I am going to all members of both houses about the best way to go about it."

U. of W. Will Offer Physical Ed. Degree

The University of Wisconsin, the first school to create an especial course for the training of teachers in physical education now has over 140 women enrolled in the department according to the latest count.

The course was first established as a major in the College of Letters and Science in 1911. Since 1918, however with the rapid development of the School of Education, the two were incorporated. Now the course is in itself not a major, but it is a four years education course for a B. S. degree.

BEAVER DAM—St. Peter's new parochial school costing $140,000, is almost completed and part of the building will be occupied next week. This building has every modern improvement including a large auditorium, and has been under construction since spring.

Wisconsin To Get 2 Million Tons Hard Coal

Allotment to State Is Held Enough for Needs

Allotment of between 1,800,000 and 2,000,000 tons of hard coal has been made to Wisconsin. P. H. Tessentin, secretary of the state fuel committee, was informed today. Shipment of the first of this supply will be made early next week.

Arrival of 2,000,000 tons of anthracite before the shipping season begins will assure Wisconsin householders of coal for their furnaces this winter, according to the fuel committee. While this amount represents only 60 per cent of the normal consumption, hold-over supplies and conservation measures, the committee feels, will make up the deficiency.

Tan Hurls Iron At Car Window

Two passengers on a Wingra park street car narrowly escaped injury in an unknown man, flung a heavy piece of iron through a window, at University ave., and Park at midnight last night. The glass was shattered.

When the car stopped and a crowd began to gather, the man fled, south toward the Italian quarter.

The intended victims refused to discuss the attempt to injure them. Before the missile was hurled, it is said, the man ran alongside the car, shouting threats. Police are investigating.

Dr. A. Sommerfeld, Now at U. W. Has Faith in Einstein

NEENAH — With 370 students, enrollment at the Neenah High school has broken all previous records.

Upon the arrival in America of Prof. Arnold Sommerfeld, professor of mathematical physics in the University of Munich, who will hold the Carl Schurz Memorial exchange professorship in the University of Wisconsin this winter, the New York Times printed on Sept. 18 the following interview:

"Dr. Albert Einstein, propounder of the relativity theory, is much occupied at present with the study of electrons and with the quanta theory, according to Dr. Sommerfeld.

"In working on the quanta theory, which is the theory that light and other radiations do not consist of vibration or waves only, but of flying particles of energy, Einstein is making partial reparations to Newton. Dr. Sommerfeld pointed out, for the damage which he did to the Newtonian theory or gravity. Newton, who was the first profound investigator of light, held that light consisted of flying particles or corpuscles which produced the sensation of light when they struck the eye. He was overruled in favor of the wave theory.

"Dr. Sommerfeld said that he entertained no doubt that Einstein's theory would be fully confirmed by the observations of the eclipse next Thursday which will be made by American, English, and Dutch-German astronomical parties in Australia and the Indian ocean. He said that he was convinced that eventually the third prediction of Einstein would be confirmed by Dr. Charles E. St. John at the Mt. Wilson observatory.

"This prediction was that a slight difference would be found between a light originating on the sun and a similar light produced on earth, the difference being due to the retarding effect which, under the relativity theory, the sun's mass should have on the vibration of the atoms producing light. He said that physicists at Bonn had shown that only six of the thousands of lines in the sun's spectrum could be safely used for the experiment, because of disturbances to which other wave lengths of light are subject would make it impossible to detect the Einstein effect among the other lines.

"There is no doubt," said Dr. Sommerfeld, "that among other excellent observations the one at Mount Wilson is the chosen forum before which this important question will be decided; partly owing to its excellent staff and partly owing to its unrivaled equipment."

"I am happy to express how great is the interest of German scientists in the present good work that is being done in America, especially in the experimental and technical branches of physics."
